

THEY "FLEW" TO PARIS—Two pair of California Valley quail seen above, flew farther and higher than any other quail when they went to the Fourth International Bird Show in Paris recently. They traveled by plane however instead of their own wingpower. 7. Ansel Robinson, San Francisco pet fancier and Miss Carol Godfrey of the California Fish and Game Dept. examine the quail.

TEMPORARY TENT-LIFE—Jewish refugees in the Israeli tent-city of Zarnaga suffer through a period of primitive tent-living while waiting for construction of government housing projects. The United States Technical Cooperation Administration works with their government to help these refugees whose numbers have increased since recent anti-semitic acts behind the Iron Curtain.
