

Eade-Norton Nuptials Held By Candlelight in Nebraska

Eleanor Munn Norton became the bride of William Charles Eade, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Eade of North Woodward avenue, in a candlelight ceremony attended by members of the family in the First Methodist Church of Omaha, Neb.

The Rev. Norman Perry read the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. E. K. Munn of Omaha and the late Mr. Munn. She stood at the altar in a waltz length gown of beige lace and a matching lace cap, and carried a shower bouquet of yellow gladioli.

Mrs. Robert J. Eade, sister-in-law of the groom, came from Bolivar, Mo., to be the bride's only attendant. She wore a waltz-length gown of aqua raw silk and a pink feathered hat. Pink gladioli were her flowers.

Robert J. Eade was the best man.

MRS. MUNN attended her daughter's nuptials in a street length gown of navy silk highlighted with pink gladioli. Mrs. Eade chose a white and navy print and also wore pink gladioli.

After a reception at the Birchwood Club in Omaha, the newlyweds left for Denver, Colo. After a two week honeymoon, they will make their home in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

OUT-OF-TOWN guests at the ceremony included Donald and Robert Eade, children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Eade of Bolivar, Mo.
