Becomes Mrs. Edward Larson In Wilmette Ill., Nuptials

Edward A. Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Larson of Birmingham, Ill., last weekend to claim Jeanne Kutten, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Kutten of Wilmette and the late Mr. Kutten, for his bride.

The couple spoke their vows at eleven o'clock Saturday morning, August 8, on the flower-banked altar of the Church of St. Francis Xavier in Wilmette. The Rev. Philip Hayes performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Robert J. Kutten, wore a gown of Alencon lace and tiny iridescent pearls, and a chapel length train. A cap of Alencon lace held her fingertip veil.

IN WALTZ-LENGTH gowns of watered rose silk shantung were matron of honor Mrs. John P. Gallagher of Evanston, Ill., and bridesmaids Patricia Grasse of Chicago, and Mary Banks of Newton Highlands, Mass.

Donors Mr. and Mrs. Larson came from Cleveland Heights, O., to be his brother's best man. Other groomsmen were John A. Larson of Urichville, O., Robert P. Larson of Birmingham, and Philip H. Weber of Edwardsville, Ill.

A RECEPTION at the North Shore Country Club, Glenview, Ill., followed the nuptials. Mrs. Kutten stood in the receiving line in a gown of mauve peau de soie with brown accessories. Mrs. Larson chose a Chantilly lace dress in periwinkle blue and navy accessories.

Among those making the trip from Birmingham for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Ortman, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hindley and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Savage.

Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. Charles M. Egan, Jr., of Morristown, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Weber of Edwardsville, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Yates of Dearborn, Miss LaVera Conklin of Detroit, Mrs. George Hayes and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wagner of Grosse Pointe, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Carter of Mt. Clemens.

AFTER A five week motor trip through New England and Eastern Canada, the newlyweds will reside in Boston, Mass., while the groom attends Harvard Business School.

MRS EDWARD A. LARSON

Wing Lake-Foxcroft News

By JILL ROBERTS
Mayfair 6-3022

Local interest in the forthcoming 1953 outdoor art festival at Kirk in the Hills is mounting steadily. The second annual exhibition will be Aug. 27, 28 and 29 from 1 to 5 p.m.

Wing Lake and Foxcroft art enthusiasts are actively participating. Portrait and landscape painter Helen Auchterlone of Wing Lake road, will have two canvases on display. The various committees, with the assistance of localities Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thom, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kasmeyer, are busy screening and cataloging the entries, and executing the detailed planning of the show. There will be a pre-showing of the prize winning works of art to be announced later, when jurors will present awards to the winning artists.

After a flying trip to Mexico, Mrs. George W. Muehle, of Foxcroft and son George are finding the back-to-normal adjustment a bit difficult. They headquartered at Mexico City and Arapalco, Tasco, San Jose Purua and other points. Aside from the brilliant color of the marketplaces and terrain of Mexico, they were impressed with the contrast of the old and new—the modern architecture and the ancient cathedrals with altars of solid gold. However, the lanes of Foxcroft looked good indeed after a two weeks absence.

Mrs. Jack I. Edgington of Wing Lake road was hostess at a luncheon Wednesday honoring her mother, Mrs. Mary A. Simpson, who arrived Monday from Burbank, Cal., for a month's stay. Among the guests were Mrs. M. H. Aldredge, Jr. and Mrs. Ed Bryson of Detroit; Mrs. Dan H. Newey of Birmingham; Miss Sally Edwards of New York City, houseguest of Mrs. Newey; Mrs. Richard H. Morgan, Mrs. J. W. Gillette, Jr., Mrs. Richard G. Little, Mrs. Ralph Minko, Mrs. John A. Roberts, all of Wing Lake.

Friends and neighbors are welcoming back Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Thom of W. Surrey road, Foxcroft, with sons Bill and Bob, who recently returned from an extensive trip abroad. The Thom's toured Europe for four months, covering England, Scotland, Denmark, Sweden, France, Germany, Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Spain, along with a trip to Africa. Thom, who is a commercial artist, did research in Paris, Stockholm and Hameln, Germany for a series of paintings on the history of pharmacy for Parke, Davis and company. The family visited galleries and museums of all the principal cities, including the art treasures at the Vatican in Rome; attended the bull fights in Barcelona and witnessed 2,000 years, all of which they recorded on 8,000 feet of color film.

Back home again after a recent two weeks of active duty with the U. S. Naval Reserve is Robert J. Nail, of Carey Lane. The tour of service included a Great Lakes cruise from Milwaukee to Traverse Bay.

On July 28 the Loren Nall family hosted a party honoring grandson Tommy Latimer, who blew out ten birthday candles.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence LeGros, of Thurber road, recently entertained at cocktails Mrs. C. Thornburn Maxwell of Worlington road, who sailed last week for Europe where she will serve as international publicist for various organizations. Other guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Elliott of Wing Lake road, who are among the newer residents, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harding, of Wing Lake.

A welcome is extended to newcomers Mr. and Mrs. Monty Shugg, of Foxcroft, and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Crabb, of Wing Lake road, both of whom moved into their new homes within the last two weeks.

Have You Met . . .
Ernest G. Aruffo, former Detroit who moved to 32360 Evergreen road in July? Aruffo is owner and manager of Crestone Floor Covering Company, Detroit. He used to play handball at the Detroit Athletic Club and golf at Grosse Ile. Now he enjoys gardening.
