

Spotlight on Chicago Suburb Before Preece-Washburn Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Preece of Orchard Ridge road left last week for Highland Park, Ill., where they will attend the wedding of their son Dubac and Miss Jeanne Washburn on August 21 in Saint Faith, Hope and Charity Church.

After dropping Mrs. Preece off at the wedding, Mr. Preece returned home, planning to return August 18 with his daughter-in-law, Miss Jeanne M. Preece, Jr., the former Sallie Slocum.

The prospective groom and his brother, Joseph M. Preece, Jr., are driving over August 14.

Ray McMullan, a roommate of Dubac's at Rollins College in Winter Park, Fla., will be a house guest at the Preece home for a week before leaving for the wedding.

All the out-of-town guests are expected to arrive in time for a dinner party to be given August 18 by Dubac's cousins, Col. and Mrs. Leslie S. Gordon of Winnetka, Ill.

ON AUGUST 19 Bob Preece will host the bachelor dinner for his brother, Debbie Sissell, roommate of Jeanne's at Rollins, will give the spitalster dinner that same evening.

The rehearsal dinner is scheduled for August 20 at Exmoor Country Club.

ALSO LEAVING Bloomfield on August 18 to labor at the nuptials will be John Dinan, Roy Hawkins and Woods Proctor. Coming from Los Angeles will be

The Hill Ceders returned to Aberey drive last week after a three-weeks vacation. The first week they spent in Minneapolis where they visited two of Ceders' brothers, Dr. E. T. Ceders and Carl Ceders, and their families. After leaving Minneapolis they drove to a cottage on Silver Lake, near Wauvada, Minn., where they were joined by Mr. Ceders' parents, the William L. Ceders of Elmwood avenue. Monday the Ceders' daughter, Candy left for Higgins Lake where she is to spend two weeks at Camp Westminister.

The Stanley Vidas and Cam Morawski of Robinson avenue returned home Sunday after a two-weeks vacation in northern Michigan. From a cottage on the Indian River near Manistique they made fishing and sight-seeing excursions. The rainbow trout were biting and provided several delicious dinners for the group.

Carol Reinhold, ten year old daughter of the Henry Reinholds of Elmwood avenue placed second in her heat of six in the 23-meter backstroke for girls ten and under in the Detroit aquatic carnival at Brennan pools, Sunday. This was Carol's first competitive swimming. Her mother, who held the state high-point trophy in 1941 and several state trophies was a member of the Detroit yacht club team, was entered in the 50 meter backstroke event Sunday. Mrs. Reinhold, the former Gloria Noble, has not engaged in competitive swimming since 1941.

The Ken Forstons with their children Barbara and Billie, returned to their home on Robinson last week after spending two weeks at Birch Lake near Traverse City.

Sara Douglas, daughter of the Murray Douglas of Olivia avenue, returned from Camp Howell on Lake Hiron Sunday. She had spent two weeks at the YWCA Camp.

Monday, Teddy Jacques celebrated his ninth birthday with a wieners roast and swimming party at Square Lake. Teddy's father, Edward Jacques, of Olivia avenue, took Bruce Lazar, Mickey Maas, Buddy Levens, Stephen Potter and Gregory Samoluk to the lake for the party.

Stephen Fairchild, Larry Anderson, Paul Thorne and Jim Martin returned last week after spending

Work Commences On 26th Annual AAUW Book Sale

Mrs. Richard L. Brown and her committee are contacting members of the American Association of University Women and the general public for contributions to the annual AAUW fall book sale.

Donations have been sought from the public through a printed appeal carried home by Birmingham school children last spring. Handbills asking for books have been distributed throughout the summer at the Baldwin Public Library and a local feed shop.

"Because the book sale benefits the entire community," states Mrs. J. H. Van Doren, publicity chairman, "we have tried to appeal to everyone for contributions. We need all kinds—old and new, poetry and prose, scientific and factual, frivolous and serious, if the twenty-sixth sale is to be as successful as the past twenty-five have been."

ALSO SOUGHT are monthly magazines, top records, sheet music, games, pictures and patterns. Anyone wishing to have materials picked up is asked to call Mr. Robert L. Garrison, Mrs. Charles D. Moore or Mrs. M. C. Dietrich.

Bride Carries Prayerbook To Holy Name Altar Rail

A prayerbook covered in white satin and pearls, and topped with a white orchid set in trailing stephanotis was carried to the altar of Holy Name Church Saturday by Nancy Winifred Hogan.

With Robert Lester Henning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester A. Henning of Ridgedale road, she reheated double-ring vows before the Rev. Richard Farris at ten o'clock in the morning.

A reception followed at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

Richard S. Kowalczyk and James E. Bamborough ushered.

Mrs. Henning attended her son's nuptials in a street length suit of teal silk shantung trimmed in light blue and crystal beading. She pinned a spray of rubrum lilies to her purse.

WHEN THE couple departed for a week's honeymoon in Northern Michigan, the bride donned a navy silk shantung dress and jacket, and navy and beige accessories.

The couple will reside in Birmingham.

THE BRIDE, daughter of Henry Michael Hogan of Arlington drive and the late Mrs. Hogan, wore the dress previously worn by her sister, Mrs. Richard S. Kowalczyk, at her nuptials.

The floor-length gown was fashioned with an off-shoulder neckline, Alencon lace bodice, sleeves and panel down the front edged with drop pearls. Her Marie Queen of Scots cap of matching lace and pearls held a fingertip veil.

Mrs. Kowalczyk was her sister's only attendant. She wore a waist length gown of ice blue nylon organza with a halter neckline of daisies, and a bolero with an Elizabethan collar. In her hair she wore a coronet of rose colored glanulias, and carried a matching crescent bouquet.

PERFORMING the services of best man was Roy A. Porrijo, Jr. The groom's brother, William H. Henning, Henry M. Hogan, Jr.,

two weeks at Camp Trounais, a YWCA camp near Bay City.

While Jim Manor was at camp his mother, Mrs. Walter Manor of Robinson avenue, and her mother Mrs. J. G. Manor of Detroit, went to St. Louis, Mo., to visit Mrs. Manor's cousin and his wife, the Wayne Leemans. They attended the open air performance of "The No. Norectic" by the Municipal Opera company of St. Louis.

Ice cubes made of ginger ale or cherry or orange juice will brighten summer beverages.
