MRS. LEE ROY JONES

Miss Vici Weds L.R. Jones At First Methodist Church

Frederika Louise Vici and Lee Roy Jones stood at the candlelit altar of the First Methodist Church Saturday evening, August 15, to exchange double-ring vows before the Rev. Arnold Runkel who was assisted by the Rev. Robert Hotelling.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Janus Vici of Pierce street, asked Mary Lou Harvie of Saginaw to be her maid of honor. Harriet Elison of Cumberland, Md., and Elizabeth Harris of Detroit completed the bridesmaids, and Amy Linda Cleary of Midland was the flower girl.

Charles A. Bryan was the best man. The bride's brother, Frederic J. Vici, the groom's brother, Jerry D. Peterson of Midland, and Lewis A. Crawford of Kalamazoo were the ushers.

The BRIDE'S gown was of satin and lace styled with a turn-over collar, long lace sleeves and a long satin train. Her veil was held by a saddle and white pearl cap, and she carried white orchids on her prayerbook.

Long gowns of orchid tissue taffeta with tulle overskirts and daisy embroidered headbands were worn by the bridal attendants who carried glameiras. The flower girl was in yellow organdy.

Mrs. Vici attended her daughter's marriage and the reception which followed in the church parlors in a floor-length gown of light green, tan accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses.

'Male Animal' Is Current Offering

When a scholarly college professor and a physically magnificent football hero are rivals for a lady's heart, which man holds the edge?

This edgy situation is the pivot for the comedy action that keeps developing without letup in "The Male Animal," which opened Tuesday, Aug. 18, at Will-O-Way Playhouse.

The play, authored by James Thurber and Elliott Nugent, will continue through Aug. 30 at the Bloomfield Hills summer theater on West Long Lake road near Telegraph.

GIVING SHAPE to the love triangle in the Will-O-Way production are Robert Bryson as Tommy Turner, the professor; Gerald Harrington as Joe Ferguson, the former gridiron great, and Bette Wright as Ellen Turner, the professor's wife.

An issue of academic freedom also embellishes the plot as Ellen is torn emotionally between her cultured husband and her old college beau, All-American Joe Ferguson.

IN SUPPORTING roles are Maureen Bailey as Ellen's younger sister, also conflicted in her affections between a football star and a scholar; Burton Wright as a mild-mannered college dean; Walter Canney as a student editor.
