Woman's Club Board Meets
On August 25

Mrs. Carl H. Rice, president of the Birmingham Woman's Club, has called a meeting of the club's newly-named executive board for 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, August 25, at the Baldwin Public Library.

Assembling will be Mrs. William Way Merrill, first vice president; Mrs. Charles E. James, second vice president; Mrs. George F. Ward, recording secretary; Mrs. John R. Duffy, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Norman Porter, treasurer.

Also on hand will be directors Mrs. Paul Grant and Mrs. C. F. Batters, auditor; Mrs. Stuart Allen, membership chairman; Mrs. Forbes Hascall, and parliamentarian Mrs. Clarence Velt.

Department heads for the 1955-56 season include Mrs. E. H. Cunningham, American Home; Mrs. Fenton Matthews, Fine Arts; Mrs. P. G. Burnett, Literature; and Mrs. R. J. Detmers, Modern Living.

IN ADDITION to conferring with program chairman Mrs. William Way Merrill, the group will consider the recommendations of Mrs. M. J. Deer, projects chairman, on the selection of the year's charitable activity. When a project has been agreed upon, fundraising programs will be discussed.

The Women's Club season will open Tuesday afternoon, October 6, when the executive board will be hostesses at a dessert tea for the entire membership.

The trend toward the use of marble celebrates the fusing of modern and traditional tastes. In many of the latest furniture fashions, marble tops have been combined with modern table bases to present a beautiful, as well as labor-saving item of furniture.

OASIS 115
 By a Customer

One of our customer-friends wrote this ad:

"You ought to call your store OASIS 115," she said, "it's so refreshingly here. And I'm not referring to your air-conditioning. That's nice, of course."

"What I like most is the friendly atmosphere. It's so nice to drop in just to chat with you. You don't seem to mind all the questions I ask you about foods and nutrition. You're so free with your time. Your store is a real OASIS in South Oakland County."
