

Misc. Revenues Over Estimates

The city's miscellaneous operating revenues for the 1952-53 fiscal year were six percent over budget estimates, director of Finance W. J. Johnson reported to city commissioners Monday night.

The city had estimated that revenues would total $207,425 and the actual receipt was $225,922.50.

In reviewing revenues Johnson pointed out that the largest increases were found in the inspection and permit items, use of property and shared state taxes.

Departmental revenues were down from last year's revenues, as were unclassified revenues.

Small 'Jet' Car Explodes Injuring Boys Slightly

Two Birmingham youngsters were injured Tuesday when their home made "jet" propelled toy automobile exploded on a test run.

Peter Burr Loomis III, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter B. Loomis of 1648 Dorchester and Geoffrey Boucher, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Boucher, 1699 Dorchester, received cuts when struck by pieces of the small metal auto.

The boys were powering the toy car with a small gas cartridge and testing it on the street in front of their homes. The machine had traveled several feet before it exploded. Both boys received medical treatment and are suffering no ill effects from their experiment.
