Trip to Canada Follows Barger-Ozirn Wedding Vows

A white satin gown with bateau neckline edged in aluminum lace was chosen by Helen Ann Ozirn for her marriage to Robert Harry Barger. The floor length skirt was detailed with pleated tulle. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, orchid and carnations. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. E. Thompson at seven o'clock, August 20, in the Martha Mary Chapel, Greenfield Village.

Auxiliary To Meet at Bloomfield Hills Home

Metropolitan Ladies Auxiliary 9 will hold its regular monthly meeting at 8 p.m., Wednesday, September 2, at the home of Mrs. Walter Leopold of Cranbrook road, Bloomfield Hills.

Co-hostesses on the evening's entertainment and refreshment committee will be Mrs. Lee Carroll, Mrs. Howard Foster, Mrs. Fred Kemp and Mrs. Roy Webb.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

Helen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Ozirn of Detroit. Robert, who resides on Southfield road, Birmingham, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Barger of North Branch.

Flour length gowns of orchid nylon tulle were worn by Mrs. Bjorne H. Johnson, sister of the bride and honor attendant, and Mrs. Philip Torporcian, bridesmaid. They carried bouquets of yellow and white daisies, respectively.

Ray Barger, brother of the groom was best man. Bjorne Johnson, Edward Ozirn and Jack Hartman ushered.

For her daughter's wedding and dinner at Warren Valley Golf Club, Mrs. Ozirn wore a tan shantung two-piece dress with turquoise hat. The new Mrs. Barger changed to a beige suit with brown accessories for her honeymoon to the Chanticleer Hotel in the Laurentian Mountains, Canada.
