Fairbanks, Alaska, Home For Mr. and Mrs. Seay, Jr.

A garden reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the marriage ceremony of Arlayne Joy Brown and George Fleming Seay, Jr. Vows were spoken at 3:30 p.m., August 22, in the First Presbyterian church, Birmingham. The Rev. W. Glen Harris officiated.

Arlayne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson C. Brown of Brookdale road. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George F. Seay of Wyandotte.

The bride was gowned in a traditional satin wedding dress previously worn by her sister, Mrs. Richard Wayne Eberhard, matron of honor. Seed pearls trimmed the sweetheart neckline and Juliet cap which held in place a fingertip veil. The full skirt ended in a long train. A white orchid centered her bouquet of stephanotis and fern.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Joseph Perron and Barbara Kelley. The attendants were dressed alike in cocktail length gowns of dark blue-grey silk antique taffeta and carried bouquets of pink gladioli. Linda Lee Eberhard, flower girl, wore a frock of white cut velvet with matching cap. Her flowers were pink rosebuds.

Gerald Seay was best man, while ushering the guests were Thomas Rhodes, Joseph Perron, Richard Wayne Eberhard and Gene Hickson.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brown chose light green antique taffeta dress and shoes, coral hat and long white gloves. Mrs. Seay wore matching mauve pink antique taffeta dress, shoes and hat, with white gloves.

Before departing on their honeymoon, the bride changed to a grey Italian tweed suit with matching hat, black accessories and an orchid corsage. The couple will visit Seattle, Wash., and Victoria, B. C., Can., before making their home in Fairbanks, Alaska.
