

Wing Lake-Foxcroft News
By JILL ROBERTS
Mayfair 6-3022

... world-wide headlines concerning the royal family of England assumed a personal touch for localities last Saturday evening at a cocktail party given by Mr. and Mrs. John D. Stanton of Foxcroft. Guest of honor was Maj. J. Dolan, of Stratford, Ont., brother of Mrs. Stanton, who recently returned from a two month's mission in Great Britain, special representative of the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps. He attended the occasion, was decorated by the Queen, met and chatted with Prince Philip, Princess Margaret, Queen Mother Elizabeth, as well as the Queen herself, at the various garden parties and social functions contingent with the historic occasion.

An interview with the major revealed many interesting observations concerning members of the royal household which ordinarily do not reach the printed page—the warm, human side of their personalities, their sense of humor and a remarkable genius for remembering faces and incidents, how Queen Elizabeth, with a mother's maternal concern, worried about young Prince Charles during the solemn crowning ceremonies.

Among the guests who gathered to welcome Maj. and Mrs. Dolan were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Price, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Stanton of Detroit, Mrs. P. F. J. Dolan, of St. Catherine, Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cavan, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Kenrick, Mr. and Mrs. Monty Shugrue, all of Foxcroft, Mr. and Mrs. B. Cripps, of Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harding, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Roberts, of Wing Lake.

A gay and lighthearted mood pervaded the summer air last Friday evening when 46 members of the younger set attended the birthday lawn party of Candy Duncock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ascherfeld, at their Wing Lake road home. Among the guests assembled for cocktails, dinner under the star bridge and afterward were Sue Mock and Carrie Carter, of Birmingham, escorted by Jerry Gillette and Eddie Proctor, of Wing Lake; Marjorie Boos, of Detroit, with date Chuck Murray; Beverly Whiting and Jack Moses, Pete Whitelaw, Mr. and Mrs. Art Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pink, Warren, Louise and Shirley Hersey, all of Birmingham; Othmer mingling in conversational groups were Mrs. and Mrs. Bruce, of Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Narme, Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts, of Wing Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stadler, of Ohio, S. R. Duncock, of Detroit, husband of the bride, guest, and his brothers Jim and George, of Auclerie, were on hand to assist in hosting.

In Chicago this week on a business trip are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. LaBelle of Birmingham road, Mrs. F. D. Keller, recently entertained the alumni group of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority in her home on Wing Lake road. The occasion was their annual reunion and the 60 attending guests dined on the terrace overlooking the lake.

The new neighbor department hangs its welcome sign for Mr. and Mrs. L. G. James, who moved into their new home on Wing Lake road last week, with the able assistance of Carole, Sheila and Christopher.

Mrs. W. D. Pittman, Jr., of Wing Lake, just back from Coldwater, where she visited former Birmingham Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Cole for a few days. Mrs. Pittman whirled off again for Sarasota, Fla., last Saturday by plane. She will spend a week or so with her daughter, Mrs. John McKeehan at Siesta Key.

Local straw-hatters will be interested in knowing that Sue Daley, (Mrs. Anthony J.) of Birmingham has shaken the travel dust from her shoes just in time to step into the key role of Mrs. Archer in the current comedy, "Kiss and Tell," which opens Wednesday at Will-O-Way. Mrs. Daley, long associated with the Birmingham Village Players, recently returned from an extensive tour of the Mediterranean. On the three months tour she visited Jerusalem, the Holy Land, Yugoslavia, Trieste, Casablanca, and several other points of interest.

The exodus of summer vacationers is mounting steadily. The Alfred L. Kasameyers of Worthington road, with sons Bob and Paul, are presently enjoying a two week holiday in the Georgian Bay area.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Stephens, of Carey Lane, with Carol and Lloyd, Jr., loaded their car with fishing gear about 10 days ago and motored northward for some long awaited angling in the upper peninsula. The foursome are due back soon, and will no doubt be taking specimens that will set the Wing Lake fish back another ten years.

BIRTHS

A daughter, Lynne Allene, was born July 30 to MR. AND MRS. DERWOOD B. GAMBLE, JR., of Jackson, Mich. Mrs. Gamble is the former Helen Hieftje of Birmingham.
