Recreation Board Meets

The Birmingham recreation board will hold its regular monthly meeting tonight in the commission room of the municipal building. Therapeutic swimming and tennis court permits are slated to be discussed.

Kiwanians Selling Christmas Trees

Birmingham Kiwanis Club members are busy waving in customers to their Christmas tree lot at the corner of Hunter and Haynes.

Kiwanians have two truck loads of trees they hope to sell in order to reach the club's goal of $3,000. Proceeds of the sale will be spent to continue the club's contributions to the boy' Scouts, YMCA, board of education and churches.

Maples Meet Troy In Cage Opener

By JIM MOSBY

The local hardcourt season gets into full swing tomorrow night when Birmingham travels to Troy for its first game.

The reserve game will begin at 6:45 while the varsity tip-off is at 8:15.

Under the able direction of Coach John Petrakis who is in his third year at Birmingham, the Maples will field a squad of 16 boys.

Headed by guard and Captain Don Dorough, the Maple squad consists of seven seniors and nine juniors, including centers Dick Muller, Ed Peters, and Jim Mosby; forwards, Mike Groves, John Hubert, Chris Christie, Bill Watkinson, Jim Johnson, Dick Sheldon, and Bill Hagen; guards, Payson Chapman, Bob Goldsmith, Mel Reuter, Ralph Hotchkiss, and Jim Pryce.

THE MAPLES PLAY their neighbor only once this year. Last year Birmingham triumphed over the Colts, 39-30.

Coach Peyton Goodwin, in his fourth season at Troy, relies on the fast break and both the zone and man-to-man defenses.

Troy and Roseville are expected to fight it out for the Oakland B title this winter.

Last year the Colts won nine while dropping eight. Troy will have the edge on the locals experience-wise, having played Lake Orion last Tuesday.

Mike DeKane, the Colt captain and brilliant forward, was high point man last year for Troy and holds the Troy gym record of 28 points in one game.

The probable starting lineups are:

Birmingham		Troy
John Hubert	F	Jack Acton
Mike Groves	F	Mike DeKane, Capt.
Dick Muller	C	Fred Barnard
Don Dorough, Capt.	G	Jim Murdock
Payson Chapman	G	Bill Haney

Why not have Santa answer your child's Christmas letter. Secure stationery from: BIRMINGHAM TRAVEL and Village Store. Deadline Dec. 16th.

Give Award Badges To Pack B-3 Cubs

The Christmas pack meeting of Pack B-3 held at Baldwin school last Monday evening opened with a cheer for Frank R. Davis, chief of Den dads who arranged the trip the weekend before to the Naval Armory in Detroit.

The boys enjoyed a tour of the submarine and had lunch at the Armory.

Award winners at the meeting were Gerry Redies and Bobby Townsend, Lion badge; David Naylor, Jimmy Pope and Peter Hutton, Bears; Peter Hutton, gold arrow; Tommy Dovenspike, bear, gold and silver service star; Steve Billings, one year service star; Jim Steiner and Terry Schaefer, wolf; Jimmy Swink, three silver arrows; Jerry Storch, silver arrow.

Storch also received a graduate certificate and plaque bearing all insignia and awards he has earned during cubbing.

Kenneth Shad was welcomed into the pack and received his bobcat pin.

After the inspection of gifts and Christmas decorations the boys had made for the Children's Aid Society, they were wrapped and placed under the tree.

Skits were presented by Dens one and six and refreshments were served.

The next pack meeting, called "Fun Night" will be on January 4.

Honors for Girl Who Saved 2 Boys From Fire in Home

Public recognition will be given 13 year-old Marilyn Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Gordon Davis, 1152 Buckingham, for having saved the lives of two children when fire broke out in their home last May 22.

Marilyn was caring for the children of Mr. and Mrs. Paul S. Bowers, 1348 Buckingham, when the fire started. The girl led the two boys to safety and then called members of the Birmingham fire department who extinguished the blaze.

She will be honored at a Christmas party at the WWJ-TV studio in Detroit on Dec. 20, when members of the Birmingham Kiwanis club take part in the Tom-Tom party for orphans.

Marilyn will receive additional honors from the local club when "Marilyn Davis Day" is observed Dec. 26 at the Birmingham theater, with a special program.

Private Contractor To Collect Both Garbage, Rubbish

Birmingham's department of public works, beginning Jan. 1, will go out of the residential rubbish collection business which will be taken over by the same private contractor that for the past year been making the garbage collections.

This determination was made Monday night by city commissioners, who approved a year's contract with the B&B Disposal Service to pick up both garbage and rubbish for a combined total of $63,384.

Rubbish will be picked up at the curb, while garbage will be collected from the rear of the house. The DPW will continue its rubbish pickup in the business areas.

A MONTHLY charge of 74 cents still will be made to each residence which desires collection. The 38 cents it will cost per house for rubbish collection will be paid by the city from its general fund.

The DPW office will continue to handle customers' complaints, forwarding them to the contractor for necessary action.

Radio Aid for Yule Shoppers

A voice from the air will guide Birmingham pedestrians across the downtown section of Maple during the last few days of the Christmas shopping rush.

Lt. Henry Timm, of the Birmingham police department, reports that, as in past years, he will install his own radio equipment at a vantage point over the street with loud speakers installed over the intersections of Woodward and Maple and Pierce and Maple.

An officer will be on duty at the microphone with spot announcements to pedestrians and motorists on traffic safety. He also will regulate pedestrian traffic across the two intersections in order to prevent jammed traffic.
