

MRS. JOSHUA R. MADDEN

Jennie Quirk Weds Lieutenant In Germany

From Weisbaden, Germany comes news of the marriage of Jennie Buel Quirk to Lt. Joshua Robert Madden on Dec. 2. Jennie is the daughter of Mrs. Allert W. Froese of Franklin, and Alexander Buel Quirk of Ypsilanti. Lt. Madden is the son of Mrs. Joshua E. Madden of Drifton, Pa., and the late Mr. Madden.

Jennie was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1951 where she was president of the Women's League. She was a member of the college Sorosis, Scroll, activities honorary and Zeta Phi Eta, national speech sorority. She has been with the American Red Cross since her graduation and is currently stationed at the 7100th U. S. Air Force hospital in Weisbaden.

Lt. Madden is serving with the 78th Armored Field Artillery battalion in Wackenheim, Germany. He attended Muhlenberg college in Pennsylvania and is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha.

The couple plan to return to the United States in January.

Pythian Sisters Re-elect Officers

A Yuletide party for Pythian Temple No. 94 is being planned for Dec. 15 in the Birmingham Community House, with an exchange of gifts. The meeting was previously scheduled to be at the home of Mrs. John Wendorff but was canceled because of illness.

At a former meeting officers were elected for the 1954 season. Re-elected to the slate were: Mrs. Roberta Davidson, most excellent chief; Mrs. Dorothy Walker, excellent senior; Mrs. Jane Coplin, excellent junior; Mrs. Daisy Goswin, manager; Mrs. Elsie Kee, guard; Miss Kathleen Ling, protector; Mrs. Evelyn Latham, secretary; Mrs. Edith Adams, treasurer; Mrs. Stella Edgar and Mrs. Irene Gifford, assistants; and Mrs. Laura E. Kirtin, press correspondent.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

Anniversary Club Will Entertain Polio Patients

Members of the Sister Kenny Anniversary club of Birmingham are conspiring with Santa Claus to fulfill the requests of young patients who are writing to him from the Sister Kenny polio hospital at Farmington.

Gifts donated by members of the Birmingham group will be presented at a Christmas party at the hospital Friday afternoon, Dec. 18. Santa himself will be on hand through the courtesy of a Detroit department store, which will also provide holiday decorations.

Through the cooperation of Mrs. Charles Bigelow, the Birmingham Puppeteers will donate their services for a presentation of "Little Red Riding Hood". Music will be supplied by Edie de Santis, a professional accordionist who is regularly heard on a local radio program. The children will also be entertained with sleight-of-hand performances by a local amateur magician.

THE OBJECT of the club is to aid in bringing about relief in the State of Michigan from physical impairments by assisting in acquiring the public with the treatment for poliomyelitis conceived by the late Sister Elizabeth Kenny.

Membership in the club is open to anyone interested in furthering this object.

The officers of the Birmingham

Yuletide Decorations Set Gay Mood at Club Dinner

Bright decorations and baskets of gifts greeted members of North Suburban alumnae chapter of Alpha Phi Tuesday evening at the Bervyn road home of Mrs. William Husham.

Helping with dinner and festivities were Mrs. H. O. Machus, Mrs. J. W. Kullerter, Jr., and Mrs. Richard O. Spear.

Christmas balls, greens and tallapers centered the table, and each member received a favor of green ribbon and tiny silver bells.

Mercy College Junior

Dolores Geisler poured tea for the guest of honor, John S. Coppin, portrait artist and art director of AAA's magazine, Motor News, when Mercy college's new "Arts of Living" class emphasized the reception line etiquette. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Jerome Geisler of 5650 Wing Lake road.

Have You Met...

The J. Floyd Fields of 3000 Chewton Cross road, Bloomfield Village? A Controller for the Power Equipment company, they moved from Highland Park on Nov. 18. Mrs. Field is a member of the Women's City club.

club are Mrs. Cyril B. Lewis, president; Charles J. Salinas, vice president; Miss Freida L. Calhoun, recording secretary; Earle W. Parcels, Jr., corresponding secretary and Walter H. Wakeman, Jr., treasurer.

MRS. C. A. RASMUSSEN USES A finished product as a model for the chicken wire and greens Christmas she is putting together. All size and shape trees were only a few of the decorations taught at the Christmas workshop held by the Franklin branch of the National Farm and Garden Association Saturday.

Girl Scouts

Miss Alcorn, fifth grade teacher, were special guests.

December officers for the troop are Pattie Copeland, chairman; Linda Hawkins, secretary; Susan Kreis, treasurer and Jane Struthers, scribe.

November activities of this group included a cookout at Woodlands park. Nov. 24 marked the third birthday of the troop with a party at which mothers and troop committee members, with NEED SOMETHING FOR YOUR HOUSE? Then locate it by reading and using the Classified Ads in The Eccentric, each week.

FREE PARKING BESIDE STORE

CASHMERE IS CHRISTMAS TREASURE

Scotch import cashmere sweaters are precious Christmas treasure. These are collector's items; full-fashioned, beautifully detailed, in exquisite colors, Sizes 34 to 40.

Srip-over 17.95 Cardigan 22.95

THE MAN-TAILORED SHIRT 5.00

Our specialty, these fine imported and domestic woven-stripe cottons; wonderful for Christmas giving. Impeccably tailored with French cuffs, tab or rounded collars. Exciting variety of colors. Same style priced to 14.95, depending on fabric

LEATHER IS A CHRISTMAS FASHION

First on her gift list: wonderful, wearable, washable capeskin jacket, so new this year in glowing pastels... blue, pink, gold, white. From a noteworthy collection of fashions, in leather.

35.00

OPEN EVENINGS AFTER DECEMBER 10

LOUNGING LUXURY FOR CHRISTMAS GIVING

We offer an impressive collection; glamour-ropes for TV lounging, practical housecoats for early-morning comfort, hostess pajamas, cozy little bed-jackets.

- Rayon taffeta quilted robe with jewelled pocket 22.95
- Pin-check gingham quilted robe; red, navy, brown 17.95

ALL GIFT MERCHANDISE CHRISTMAS-WRAPPED AND MAILED WITHOUT CHARGE UPON REQUEST

Frost Fantasy

Enticingly embroidered beauties of exquisite nylon tricot

by Van Raalte

What more inspired gift than lovely nylon tricot lingerie, frosted with lace and fine

pleating... all of famous Van Raalte perfectionist quality, precision fit. Our Christmas collection is truly cause for rejoicing...

"BECAUSE YOU LOVE NICE THINGS"

Grecian gown in permanently pleated nylon tricot. Dahlia red, Cloud white, 22.50

Nylon Petalakin petticoat with permanently pleated flounce, lace insert. 5.95

Nylon Sheerito gown with full yoke of embroidered tricot and Val lace. 10.95

Nylon Petalakin slip with permanent pleats and fine embroidery. 8.95