Southeast Area Folks Celebrate Birthdays

By JANE STAGG
Staff Correspondent
LI. 9-3856

SOUTHEAST OF BIRMINGHAM—Last Saturday Bruce Laura, son of the Paul Lazarus of Mankato avenue, celebrated his ninth birthday with ice cream and cake at the home of his maternal grandparents, the G. J. Rosas of Lincoln drive.

Miké Messner, who was seven years old that day invited a group of schoolmates to his home on Groveland avenue for a traditional birthday party. During the party and games his parents made movies. Those appearing in the films are Bobbie Quin, Steve Ibrig, Steve Strohm, Steve Proser, Tommy Wyant and Billie Cedarholm.

The Andrew Stupkas also gave a birthday luncheon in their home on Groveland last Saturday in honor of Paul, who was four years old. Mrs. John Schreiber and son John, Mrs. Jesse Birchard with Pam, Dennis and Denise, Mrs. Harry Blair with son Richard, Mrs. Bob Lift and daughter Gail, Mrs. Williams Allen and son Michael and Mrs. James Coulter with Judy and Jimmy attended this two generation celebration.

Saturday the John Schneiders of Olivia went to Willow Run to see his mother, Mrs. George Volland, off on her return trip to Milwaukee. Mrs. Volland had visited them for a week.

Mrs. Holmes D. Ferris returned to her home on Trafford a week ago Sunday after spending three weeks in West Hartford, Conn.

where she went to welcome her fifth grandchild, Susan Bryant Williams, daughter of the Robert G. Williams. Susan is their first child. Mrs. Williams (Barbara Ferris) is assistant organist at the First Congregational church in West Hartford.

Patricia Slattery, daughter of the G. R. Slattery of Glenwood avenue is doing the publicity for the shoe committee of the student Christmas drive at Marygrove college, where she is a sophomore art major. Each year the school provides clothing, food and toys for 40 families recommended by the Torch Drive. Each family is visited by sociology students of the college to determine their Christmas needs.

Monday, Dec. 14 at 8 p.m. some students from Upton school will present the Christmas program for the PTA. Other students will see the program during school hours. Elva Rombo's sixth grade has made puppets with which they will present "The Littlest Angel." Jimmy Wolf is to do the narration. The Vocalettes, a group of 39 fifth and sixth grades, under the direction of Joanne Elliott, will pro-

Sunday, 3 p.m., Dec. 13, is the time set for the investiture of five new Girl Scout Brownie troops at the Shrine of the Little Flower. All other troops of the school are asked to be present. Several Brownie troops will fly-up as intermediates Girl Scouts. Mrs. P. N. Lemerise, neighborhood chairman for the Shrine school has named Mrs. Fred Bruno, Mrs. Don McGinnis, Mrs. C. VanWagon, Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Lawrence J. Kehoe, Jr., and Mrs. Charles Proser as leaders for the new Brownies. Father John Wittstock of the Catholic Youth Center will officiate at the investiture.

Over the week-end W. H. L. Everard of Elmwood avenue, attended the stag dinner held by the Intercollegiate Alumni club at Adrian Cotter's restaurant. Charles Baker of Robinwood exhibited his colonial postmasters' cachets at the combined show held by the Ferndale and Birmingham Stamp clubs Sunday in Ferndale.
