

"Tom The Bomb" Stars For Vols As Sophomore

UNIV. OF TENN. SPORTS PUBLICITY DEPARTMENT "Tom the Bomb". That's what teammates and fans down in Tennessee's highest school call Tom Tracy, the University of Tennessee's first-stringer and 185 pound sophomore from Birmingham, Michigan has shared the fullback honors with first-stringer Ted Schwager in the Vol games played to date, and has proven himself a threat each time he carries the ball. Tracy has actually exploded in but two games this year, but that was enough for Volunteer sports addicts to speculate just what Tracy might do if he were operating behind one of the great Tennessee lines of old. The short, husky blond has been at somewhat of a disadvantage this year playing at fullback after high school and college fresh experience as a tailback. But he has performed well at his post and is high in scoring for the Orange and White team with 35 points accumulated by five touchdowns and five extra points.

when given half a chance. His 62 yard career in the North Carolina game is the longest run turned in by a Vol thus far this season. In that Tarheel tilt, Tracy had his greatest game of the season with that 62 yard jaunt and a 21 yard scoring tally. His 21 yard run was the prettiest, because he appeared trapped shortly beyond the scrimmage line. But he spun, twisted, hipped and faked his way into the web of Tarheels and tipped it down to double stripes. On the long run he simply shot through a minute crevice in the line like a student from a physics lab and outscored the secondary to scoring ground. Opponents have gone out of their way to aim the oval away from Tracy when kicking off to the Vols. His kickoff return yardage is not impressive to those who returned 20 kickoffs for a total of 30 yards. Tom has caught one pass for a five yard gain.

fastest blocking from a forward to become one of the nation's great. Though hampered by inexperience and lack of speed in the line, Coach Robinson has come up with a fair team this Fall, that at the time of this writing has a record of 6-1. Tom was outstanding in three sports at Birmingham High school and was picked for the all-state high school football team in his senior year here.

Drunk Conviction Costs Detroit Man 10 Dollars
Pleading guilty to a charge of drunk and disorderly, George W. Nicholson, Royal Palms hotel, Detroit, was fined $5 and ordered to pay $5 cost by Justice John J. Garfil, Friday.

In another case Friday, Justice Garfil fined Elizabeth Publow, 3324 Normandy, Royal Oak, $4 after her arrest on a charge of double parking.

Mrs. Publow protested that she was merely waiting for someone to vacate a parking space when she was ticketed by a Birmingham officer.

The arresting officer stated that he watched her for several minutes before issuing the ticket.

TENNESSEE'S LARGE SURPLUS AT TAILBACK (five of them before season started) was the department Head Coach Harvey Robinson shift-ed Tracy to fullback. He hasn't run for a touchdown on every play, but he has shown that he can "go"

STATISTICS CANT SHOW very much sometimes. For instance, it's difficult to describe a spine-tingling incredible run with mere numbers for adjectives. "The Bomb" is a crowd pleaser who needs only more college football experience and perhaps better and
