

Patricia Howell Says Vows In New Hampshire

Patricia Jane Howell became the bride of Charles Samuel Gerrish, Jr., at a candlelight ceremony Nov. 25 in the Unitarian Universalist church in Portsmouth, N. H. The Rev. William W. Lewis officiated at the double ring rites. A background of organ music was played by Mrs. Robert W. Craig. Patricia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Austin Howell, 640 Lakeside drive. Charles' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Gerrish of Kittery Point, Maine.

The bride wore a street length dress of white brocaded tulle and a corsage of eucharis lilies. Her only attendant was her sister, Nancy Elizabeth Howell, who wore a pink wool jersey dress with angora trim and a corsage of pink sweet-heart roses.

RALPH C. CRAIG was best man. Ushers were Robert W. Craig, brother-in-law of the groom, and David Austin Howell, Jr., brother of the bride.

A reception for 50 friends and relatives was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents in Kittery Point. Nancy Howell cut the bride's cake.

For her wedding trip through Maine, Patricia wore a cocoa brown knit dress with brown and white accessories. The couple will reside in Kittery Point.

ATTENDANTS at the wedding were from Birmingham; Hartford, Conn.; Boston and Beverly, Mass.; and Jeffrey, N. H. Guests were ending the night before the wedding at the rehearsal dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Craig.
