

Serving With 24th Quartermaster Co.

24TH DIV. KOREA—Cpl. John R. Heiser, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Heiser, 460 Harmon, is serving with the 24th Infantry Division in Korea. Heiser arrived overseas in May of this year for duty as a personal administrative specialist in the division's 24th Quartermaster Company. Before entering the Army in December 1944, he was a student at the University of Michigan.

Lathrupite Sells Mule Whip; Gets Thrown by Burro

Mrs. Jean M. Campbell, 27580 E. California, Lathrup Village, recently stamped the Broadway show of Peter Arnell's "I'll Buy That" show on Tuesday, Dec. 1, when she appeared on the coast-to-coast television program.

It took exactly 26 of the maximum 30 questions before Arnell Meadows was able to identify Mrs. Campbell's 8-foot black snake mule whip, which had been in her husband's family for at least three generations.

Mrs. Campbell might have tripled her $130 had she been able to answer correctly three quiz questions relative to the whip. Mrs. Campbell did not know that "burro" was the Spanish word, now in common American usage, for the donkey, and so missed out on her first question.

Thus far, "I'll Buy That" has bought 301 items—items such as a live monkey, a pair of wrestling trunks, and a cigar store Indian—for a grand total of $49,430.

Evolution Report Slated For Instit.

A scientist's report on "A New Look at Evolution", to be given by Dr. Benjamin Burma of the University of Nebraska, is on the agenda for the Cranbrook Institute of Science lecture program for Friday, Dec. 11 at 8:15 p.m.

Dr. Burma, a professor of invertebrate paleontology, will report on his original research in analysis of living forms by means of mathematics and statistical procedures. His findings and new methods of approach to taxonomy have resulted in startling discoveries concerning fossil populations.

The lecture is open to the interested public.

Greyhound Offers Special Winter Sporting Tours

Winter sports fans from Birmingham again this year will be served by specially equipped Greyhound buses furnishing direct service to the state's snow resorts for winter outings.

First run this season will be Friday, Jan. 8, according to Greyhound officials.

Couches assigned will travel to Standish, West Branch, Rosemont, Grayling, Waters, Gaylord and Boyne Falls. Trips are planned to permit departure from here on Fridays and return late Sunday.

SPECIAL PACKS are provided atop buses to hold sports equipment.

All expense snow tours also will be offered. Tours are designed for both novice and expert skiers.

For example, there are two-day essential expenses and two nights' lodging; five meals at destination, and toll fees at sports areas.

Of interest to beginners will be the six-day "Learn-to-Ski" vacation at Boyne Mountain Lodge, Boyne Falls. This package includes five nights' lodging at the lodge, 16 meals, entertainment, and local transportation and five days of professional ski instruction. Details of the trips are available at the local Greyhound terminal.
