Christmas Affairs Grip Walnut Lakers

By LOUISE ROBERTS Staff Correspondent MAYfair 6-3743

WALNUT LAKE—With the approach of the Christmas season, Walnut Lake residents are again planning community-wide gatherings where neighbor can meet neighbor to exchange good wishes. All are welcome and newcomers are particularly invited to participate.

The annual community tree-lighting and caroling has been planned for Sunday, Dec. 20, at 7 p.m. The Walnut Lake Women's club will erect a tree in the area west of the stores on Walnut Lake road and, as is customary, a kindergarten child will turn on the lights.

All Walnut Lake people will join in the caroling, with the Girl Scouts leading the singing. It is rumored that even Santa Claus might come with something for each child.

The Christmas "cookie swap", inaugurated so successfully last year by Mrs. Howard Gould and Mrs. Edward Nightingale, will be carried on this year with Mrs. John Phelps and Mrs. Dwight Butler as hostesses. All Walnut Lake ladies are invited to come to wish friends and neighbors a Merry Christmas. Mrs. Phelps is opening her Walnut Lake road home on Thursday, Dec. 17, from 1:30 to 3:00 p.m. for the affair. Each one attending will bring as many as she wishes of her favorite Christmas cookies, together with the recipe. These will be exchanged for a like number of cookies which she may choose from among those brought by neighbors.

Members of the Walnut Lake branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association will learn how to make Christmas decorations Monday, Dec. 15, when they meet for a workshop at Baldwin Public Library, Birmingham. Each member is asked to bring a sandwich for her lunch. The workshop begins at 10:30 a.m.

The Michigan division of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association held a tea on Dec. 4 at the home of Mrs. Edna Wilson of Rochester to raise funds for their international scholarship fund. Members of the Walnut Lake branch attending were Mrs. Lester Johns, Mrs. A. M. Heinman, Mrs. Perry Hoay, Mrs. Betty Bell, Mrs. Cass Brovarney, Mrs. E. S. Maud, Mrs. Nell Lund, Mrs. Stewart Schultz and Mrs. Henry Jokela.

John Nahabedian, president, announces that there will be no general meeting of the Walnut Lake YTA in December.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Don Clymer and sons Lynn, 12, and Mickey, 10, who came from Detroit early in November. Their new home is at 5025 1/2 Century in Bloomfield Farms. Clymer is with Detroit Diesel. Mrs. Clymer has been a Cub Scout den mother and enjoys sewing.

Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Long, who came to Walnut Lake in May, are holding open house for friends and neighbors from Detroit and Walnut Lake on Dec. 19 and 20. The occasion will be a house warming for their home at 2200 Lawdale.

The Joe Dingwalls have returned from Ft. Scott, Kan., where they spent two weeks with Mrs. Dingwall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weeks.

An extended Thanksgiving holiday found Mr. and Mrs. Norman Facer of Langham drive in Florida, where they visited Mrs. Facer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kirby, at Dunedin, near Clearwater.

Lois Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones of Quanton road, celebrated her fifth birthday at a dinner Nov. 30. Relatives from Bay City were guests.

The James Abbots of Putnam drive returned Saturday from a trip which took them south for Thanksgiving and the following week. After visiting Abbot's family at Albany, Ga., they went on to Florida for a few days of Gulf fishing at Carrabelle.

A party with games, ice cream and cake marked the fifth birthday of Suzanne Chesterfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Chesterfield, on Dec. 6. Guests were Susan Beaudry, Linda and Susan Moakes, Cindy Thomas, Denny Braland, Joan Hansen, Donny Camp, Lynn Chesterfield and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brey and son Pat of Detroit.

On the preceding evening Mr. and Mrs. Chesterfield had as guests the G. J. Beaudrys, Mr. and Mrs. Norm Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Moakes.

Walnut Lake sweat shirts and tee shirts will soon be the height of fashion with our younger set. Brown mothers are planning the sale of these items to raise money for Browne troop activities. Mrs. Joseph Ollar is taking orders. This project was explained to the leaders and troop committee members attending the Girl Scout neighborhood meeting Dec. 7.

Those present were Mrs. Otis Fochler, Mrs. Ernest Jacobson, Mrs. M. R. Sutton, Mrs. Cass Brovarney, Mrs. John Gibson, Mrs. John Walters, Mrs. Dave Martin, Mrs. Perry Graber, Mrs. Joseph Ollar, Mrs. J. B. Roberts and Mrs. Harold Jones, chairman.

Browne Troop 325 made spatter print Christmas cards at their meeting last week. Diane Martin was hostess.

Troop 360 joined other junior high Girl Scout troops at a Christmas party in Birmingham on Dec. 2. Sharon Gibson was mistress of ceremonies for the evening. Troop members and troop committee members attending brought articles to be sent to Korean civilians. They also brought ornaments for Christmas trees which will be purchased by at the home of Mrs. Robert Myers. Those present were Mrs. Clare Hellenberg, Mrs. Don Brown, Mrs. Clifford Rice, Mrs. William Bishop and Mrs. Philip Knurich. The Cub Scout pack meeting on Thursday, Dec. 17, will be a Christmas party. It will be held at the school at 7:30 p.m. Following the pack meeting there will be no den meetings until the first Tuesday in January.

Last week all Cub dens worked on Christmas presents. Den 6 also went out jokes to make scrap books for a hospital. Hosts in their respective dens were Hugh Nield, Bob Hemmingway, Stanley Robertson, Larry Myers and David Sanborn.

Cubs and some of their dads went swimming Dec. 5 at the Pontiac YMCA. Dads who accompanied the boys on this outing were Keith Symon, Clifford Williams, Albert Moore, Robert Myers, Phil Emrich, Norman Mealey, John Gibson and Clare Hellenberg.
