

Cocktail Party At Helliers Precedes Alumni Xmas Dance

Yale Alumni Association of Michigan will hold its annual Christmas dance this year on Saturday, Dec. 19, at the Country club of Detroit. The dance will be their first big party of the holiday season.

Funds realized from the Yale dance go to support four scholarships at Yale University. Each year a Michigan student enters the freshman class at Yale on one of the scholarships.

Acting on the dance committee is Wellington M. Watters, 1634 Graceland. Tickets are on sale at the Village store and may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Watters. Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Hellier, Jr., 1855 East Maple, members of the alumni group, will entertain at a cocktail party preceding the dance.

FRANKLIN—Mr. and Mrs. Harris Cook celebrated their silver wedding anniversary last Saturday night at their home on Bristol lane. They were hosts to 40 guests at a dinner followed by a cocktail party. Among their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker, former Franklinites now living in Grosse Pointe; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Page, Grosse Ile; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hunter, Dearborn and the Fred Gnadt, Wilbur Krauses, Clyde Hawleys and the Kenneth Binders all from Birmingham and other guests from Detroit.

Baker presented the couple with a book embossed with their names in which there were places designated for all the highlights of their lives from birth on. The volume is autographed by all of their anniversary guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wagner were hosts at a dinner party last Saturday night at their home on Charles lane. Their guests numbered nine.

The Vera Fishers were hosts to 19 guests at breakfast last Saturday morning after the annual Christmas dance held by the Woodworkers at the Birmingham Country club.

Members of the Friendly Circle have invited the members of the Evening and Village Circles to join them in their annual Christmas tea next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ralph Woodburn.

The affair will include a musical program presented by Mrs. William Hommeyer, violinist from Birmingham, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Robert Elder, also of Birmingham.

Members of the Franklin Women's Bowling league will have a potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Leonard Lawton next Thursday, Dec. 17, preceding their regular afternoon bowling. There will be no further activities for the group until after the holidays.

Library Operations Explained for Club; Christmas Plans Made

The problems of operating a city-owned library and the service such an institution can offer the public were discussed by Miss Jeanne Lloyd, head librarian, for Birmingham Kiwanians at their Dec. 8 meeting.

Miss Lloyd explained operational procedures, costs and problems of the public library to the group.

She told of the many facilities offered at the library, the several specialized sections of books, research equipment and the other services which a well-equipped, well-maintained library can provide for a community.

Kiwanians are planning their annual Christmas party for children at the Baptist home on 13 Mile road for Dec. 15. At this time the men take over, providing fun, games, gifts and refreshments for all residents at the home.

Foxcroft Garden Branch Plans Dec. 14 Workshop

WING LAKE-FOX CROFT—Members of the newly organized Foxcroft Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden association attended the International Christmas Tea and sale held Friday in the Rochester home of Mrs. Richard G. Wilson. They were Mrs. S. E. Fleming, Mrs. Alfred Carter, president, and Mrs. J. W. Wolfson.

Sponsored by the International Marketing committee, the tea and sale held Friday in the Rochester home of Mrs. Richard G. Wilson. They were Mrs. S. E. Fleming, Mrs. Alfred Carter, president, and Mrs. J. W. Wolfson.

Red tapers, poinsettias and silver services graced the table where division officers presided.

The Foxcroft branch will meet for their Christmas Greens Workshop at 10:30 a.m., Dec. 14, in the Baldwin Library. Members and guests are to bring sandwiches and coffee will be served.

did we pack it in? routine was no doubt experienced by the Charles Davley family on Monday. They moved from their Foxcroft home, 6320 West Surrey, to their new home at Island Lake. Their new address is 1299 Patters Lane, Route 3, Pontiac. The Davleys have two children, Janet and Julie.

Unpacked and settled in their newly purchased home are the residents of 6350 Wing Lake road. Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. W. Stone of Grosse Pointe moved last Monday into the home formerly occupied by the A. J. Auchterlonies. Footsteps around the home will be those of the Stone's children, Sheila and Allen. Their father is a manufacturers representative in the General Motors building.

Entertaining at a buffet on Friday evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stecker, 4097 Wing Lake road. Guests will include Mr. and Mrs. James Maunders, Mr. and Mrs. Don Maunders, Mrs. Joan Allen and Charles Weber.
