R. C. Mahon Foundation Contributes For Polio

by Ruth Ann Silhar
Special Writer for The Birmingham Eccentric

Gift of $1000 to be used for new equipment at Oakland County's Sister Kenny polio center at Farmington has been announced by Mrs. Cyril B. Lewis, 739 Lakeview, chairman of the Sister Kenny Anniversary Club of Birmingham.

The gift comes from the R. C. Mahon Foundation of Detroit and Mrs. J. R. Wagner, 1315 N. Glenhurst, a member of the Birmingham organization who was instrumental in obtaining the contribution.

The Sister Kenny Anniversary Club of Birmingham was founded last June following a testimonial dinner in honor of Dr. Ethel Calhoun, head of the county's polio center.

The club was formed to help the Kennedy Foundation and Dr. Calhoun expand the services and facilities provided for the county's polio victims. Membership of the Sister Kenny Anniversary Club is composed of more than 100 Birmingham residents.

The county's polio center, until recently located at the Oakwood Hospital in Pontiac, has now been moved to more commodious quarters at the Children's Hospital in Farmington. More beds are available here but even so, the polio center is taxed to its limit.

A tour through the new hospital is being planned in the near future for the members of the Sister Kenny Anniversary Club.

Christmas Party Set For Barnum School Eighth Grade Students

Teachers and eighth grade students at Barnum junior high school are planning a Christmas party for the eighth graders on Dec. 11, to be held in the Barnum gym, beginning at 7:30 p.m. and ending at 10:30 p.m.

Helping with the refreshments will be Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Apple, homerooms, and Mrs. Black's class section 11. Mrs. Cartwright's class section 2 is in charge of tickets. Miss Keller's and Miss Clawson's art classes are making the decorations.

Miss McHugh's class section 4 is in charge of programs. Mr. Radloff is planning the movies that will be shown. Mrs. Burgess' and Miss McCormick's homerooms are working on publicity.

Responsibility will be handled by Miss Brizette, Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Lombardi's classes. Students of Miss McEwen are taking care of check rooms.

Leg Rosemont, committee chairman, said R. E. Straight, 1881 Devonshire, had accepted the office of Cubmaster for the new pack.

Since formation the 35 members have been working for Bobcat, Wolf, Bear, Lion, and Weebles badges.

A Dec. 1 meeting by committee members at the Community House saw completed plans for the Dec. 14 Christmas party of games, carols and refreshments to be served by pack mothers and committee-men.
