MRS. JOHN A. STROMER

Candlelight Lace Worn
For Saturday Wedding

Sarah Carolyn Farnham wore a chapel length gown of candlelight lace and nylon tulle over satin when she came down the aisle of Townsite Community church to exchange marriage vows with John Andrew Stromer of Royal Oak. The Rev. John Rose officiated at the Saturday afternoon ceremony.

The bridal gown was styled with a fitted basque, long sleeves and a portrait neckline. A tiered veil of illusion was held by a small tiara of satin appliqued with seed pearls. The bridal bouquet consisted of white orchids and white roses.

Mrs. Theodore Plane, the groom's sister, served as honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Jean Merchant, Jerri McMullen and Hilda Arnold. Mrs. Plane wore a toast colored ballroom length frock. Bridesmaids wore matching dresses in green. They wore small feather headpieces, with matching veils, and carried Talisman roses.

THEODORE PLANE was best man. Ushers were Edward Farnham, the bride's brother, Robert Kuntz and Herbert Doyle, all of Royal Oak.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Farnham of Lathrup Village, were hosts at a reception in the church parlors. Mrs. Farnham wore a beige silk frock with brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Harry Farrall, chose a plum colored taffeta ensemble with pink accessories.

FOR TRAVELING, Mrs. Stromer wore a beige suit with black accessories. Upon their return from a short honeymoon they will live in their new home, 3912 Custer, Royal Oak.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. R. F. Gring of Skorn Lake, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. Johnson of Racine, Wis., formerly of Pine Lake; and Mrs. Ben Pearson of Kenosha, Wis.
