

Society Plans Dollar per Hour Tutoring Service

National honor society members set up plans for tutoring service at a recent meeting.

Each member will teach one or two subjects at one dollar an hour of which 50 cents will go to the student and 50 cents to the club treasury.

The club discussed the idea of holding the induction ceremony at the beginning rather than the end of the second semester. This would make it possible for new members to take part in some club activities before the end of the year.

THE NATIONAL HONOR society has 350 money grants to any college available for NHS members. Anyone interested can take a test to try out for these scholarships, applications for which must be in before March 25.

Officers for the year are Roger Johnson, president; Cheryl Michelson, secretary; and Alice Richards, treasurer.

Other members are Mary Balder, Sarah Colwell, Marlene Crawford, Ethel Didier, Don Dorough, Jean Flores, Joan Gassaway, Thor Halvorson, Cherry Harris, John Hubert, Pat Jackson, Ann McDonald, Dorothy Ojala, Louisa Roberts, Carolyn Shattuck and Adele Toepfer. E. A. Hubbard is adviser of the organization.

We Shall be closed Saturday December 26th

Higgins and Frunk

CORADELL KALOSCAY ADELE KAERSCHER JUDY AUSTIN PIXIE YINGLING Barnum players enact death scene. (Eccentric Staff Photo)

Assembly Hears Blind Minister

At a recent assembly at Birmingham high school, an inspirational speech was given by Albert A. Windle, blind minister from Piedmont, New York.

Questions on the attitude of blind people were discussed and demonstrations given including use of Braille books, checker boards, and seeing by smell, sound, taste and touch.

Mr. Windle is the exception only through years of self-training. He has accomplished his goal of acting normal and not being recognized as blind.

Barnum Players Present Play

"The Birds' Christmas Carol", the immortal Christmas story of a crippled child, was presented by members of Barnum Junior high school's dramatic classes as their traditional play in the school auditorium, Tuesday, Dec. 22.

The players were joined by members of the Barnum choral group under the direction of Majel Brette and the orchestra directed by Robert Kutcher, in the presentation of the Christmas program that was repeated in school assemblies Tuesday and Wednesday.

The story relates the birth and short life of Carol Bird, a child who is born on Christmas day and in whose life the spirit of Christmas seems embodied.

Match-Me-Hop by Tri-A Members

Starting Christmas vacation with a bang, Tri-A presented its annual Match-Me-Hop Wednesday night at the Community House from 9:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m.

Dancing to the music of Russ Weaver and his band were many couples wearing matching clothes. Prizes were given for the four most original costumes.

General head of the dance was Trudy McKewen; decorations, Mary Knecht and Mary Kay Whitting; publicity, Ann Shenefield and Maile Harabedian; refreshments, Helen Black; chaperones, Carolyn McLeese; tickets, Noreen Harrigan; band, Judy Reynolds and Mary Kay Whitting.

HEADING THE cast were Adele Kaerscher, as Carol; Nancy McCartney as Mrs. Bird, Dave Wentworth as Donald Bird, Bill Cartwright as Uncle Jack; Judy Newberg as Elfrida Clifford and Bob Wood as the father.

The Ruggles' family was played by Penny Greer, Bob Yingling, John Hyde, Larry Rubley, Kathy Voss, Alice Olson, Mary Leach and Dennis Welker and Mary Alice Thurber.

Angels in the prologue were Judy Austin, Pixie Yingling and Coradell Kaloscay with Barbara Hubbard as reader.

The play was under the direction of Lyla McCormick.

Birmingham High Alumni News

Home for the holiday from various colleges are several Birmingham alumni.

Included are Rita Skaare, Joanne Pedler, Lois Moore and Sheila Traynor, who arrived from Northwestern University where Rita is pledging Kappa Kappa Gamma and was chosen to represent the sorority in the freshman council.

At Bob Thalacker's small homecoming party last week were Rita Skaare from Northwestern, Mary Jo Wiestler, Stephens, David Guichrist, University of Michigan, Doug Colwell, Denison University, Nancy Tischer, Miami University, where she is secretary of her pledge class. Bob is at Princeton.

Also home were Ted Schwarz from University of Pennsylvania, Linda Miller, Judith Le Mesurier, Larry Coleman, Sally Wilkinson, Janet Weber, Pat Babeock, Jean and Judy Webster, Kay Mackenzie and Linda Landsnaes from the University of Michigan.

BARBARA BIGGE is celebrating her holiday from Indiana University.

Elizabeth Cobb arrived from University of Washington where she is president of the Junior Panhellenic organization.

Also home are Sue Wilson, Judy Anderson, Linda Loomis and Polly Vliet from Ohio Wesleyan.

From Michigan State are Nancy McCombe, Gordon Miller, Tom Riekelman, Roger Miller, Paula McDonald and Judy Ritter.

Nancy Hennig, Kitty Kim, Marjorie Crook and Virginia Carlson are home from Hillsdale.

Tom Tracy is home from the University of Tennessee.

Ned Sharples recently returned from Oberlin and Jerry Florez from Denison.

Planning teas over the holiday are Jane Boyd who is home from Penn Hall and Linda Miller.

Future Teachers' Order Club Pins

Members of Future Teachers' club ordered their club pins and watched a clay demonstration at a recent meeting.

Newly elected officers are Helen Black, president; Myrta Miller, service president; Judy Bujold, secretary; Marilyn Peters, treasurer; Barbara Ritter, historian; Andy Hawley, parliamentarian.

The club plans to become a national chapter.

Birmingham Hi-Society

Tiara members and dates enjoyed a hayride recently at Hayride lodge in Rochester. After the ride, couples returned to the lodge for dancing and refreshments. In the wagons were Nancy Wangberg, Bill Hohmeyer, Pat Andrews, Pete Mitchell, Lea Mae Marsh, John Van Alstyne, Sue Spencer, Jim Mosby, Janie Racine, Pete McDonald, Sue Brennan, John Howard, Marlene Podkany, Ed Leavenworth, Helen Chanay, Alan Brown, Beth Saylor, Stan Rosenquist, Rev. Harris, Dick Loeding, Carol Goldstein and Bill Mallender.

A CHRISTMAS PARTY for C.T.A.A. was given recently at the home of Jane McDaniel. Kay Pomeroy was Santa Claus.

Among those receiving gifts were Jean Flores, Elizabeth Williams, Adele Toepfer, Nancy Yarnall, Joanie Cummings, Judy Averill, Pat Beeze, Jean Fairbairn, Sue Beggs, Janet Symons, Sandra Parrish, Joanie Polhemus, and Susan Doherty.

At Howard Johnson's party before the Pigskin Prom were Linda Rogers, Bob Jenkins, Helen Colwell, John Appleford, Alan Van Kirk, Don Dimock, Nina Slavson, Greg Bevis, Jack Ennis, Larry Girard, Joan Florez, Bill Harris, Patty Nyberg, Bob Haugh, Howard and his date Barbara Abbott.

Members of Tri-A are preparing baskets of food and a Christmas tree for a needy family in Pon...

KST CLUB is selling Christmas trees. General chairman of the project is Joe Archer, and salesmen include John Howard, Martin DeHann, Bill Martin, Don Dimock, and Bo Haugh.

Tri-A's annual alumni tea will be given December 26 at Sue McDonald's home. Karen Gavic and Jo Beecher are co-chairmen of the event.

The Birmingham Variety club is selling popcorn at the basketball games to raise enough money to buy a trophy case costing about 100 dollars.

Students selling at the games are Bruce Terry, John Skaane, Dennis Coyle, Martin DeHann, Thor Halvorson, Jerry Kraus, Russ Hibbard, Jerry Mill, Bill Dove, Pete Hubert, Alan Fuhrman, Jim Taup, and Dick Schwarz.

Coach Vincent Scantline is adviser of the club for the winter term.

Call Midwest 4-1100 to place an Eccentric Classified Ad.

boutique of Furs by Robert dancing chiffons

The exquisite grace of silk chiffon is evident in this Carl Chagman with draped bodice, sheltered shoulders and an elasticated, jeweled belt, $115. From a collection of chiffons in turquoise, red or black.

550 1/2 Woodland Ave. Birmingham
3 Woodland Ave. Jasper Point

Higgins and Frunk

WABEEK BUILDING
BIRMINGHAM
DETROIT CHICAGO

ERRY CHRISTMAS
And A Happy New Year
To Mr. and Mrs.

May the best be yours throughout the gay holiday season... and for the New Year

Tuxedosfrom $75.00
Dress Jewelry$10.50-$12.50
Dress Shirts$8.50
Dress Ties$2.50
Tie and Cammerbund$10.50

Holiday Excitement

calls for the social security of...

Gossard's CONVERTIBLE Strapless Basque

Gossard's newest strapless basque is the most useful half-bra ever! Coverage may be lowered as your necklines dictate by folding down one, two or all three of the nylon marquisette petal cuffs. Flexible bones and elastic back for complete security. And the basque body shapes and slims your waistline. White satin, nylon lace and marquisette.

$8.50

Let us show you our selection of Strapless Bras in black or white in Longerlyne and short bras form $ 2.50 to $8.50.

The Glassford Shop
Personalized Service By Graduate Costillers

Store Hours: Mon. thru Sat., 9 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

135 Pierce MI 4-3244