MRS. RICHARD L. KINGSWOOD

Florida Honeymoon For the Kingswoods

A Miami Beach wedding trip followed the vows exchanged by Mary Grace Bowden and Richard Langenau Kingswood at 7:30 p.m., Dec. 19, in the First Methodist church. The Rev. Arnold F. Runkel officiated at the double ring candle-light ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bowden, Jr., 1154 Birmingham boulevard. Richard's parents are Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Kingswood, 1056 Devonshire, Grosse Pointe.

Mary Grace wore a gown of pearl silk with an alencon lace bodice, fashioned with a portrait neckline, long sleeves, ending in points over the wrists and a bouffant skirt falling into soft folds and ending in a cathedral train. Her imported silk illusion fingertip veil was attached to a sweetheart cap of matching alencon lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses and fleur d'amour centered with a white orchid. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

MARY KAY Griffith was honor attendant wearing a gown styled with blue velvet bodice and tulle skirt over tulle. She wore an empire bouffant and carried a matching teal blue velvet muff to which was pinned pale pink poinsettias. Bridesmaids were Linda Kingswood, sister of the groom from Grosse Pointe, Jane Seymour of Franklin, Margaret Ireland, Alysanne Dove and Eva Stone, all of Birmingham. They wore gowns identical to the maid honor's and had white poinsettias pinned to their muffs.

May Joy
 Attend Your Christmas

As shepherds watched their flocks . . . and three Wise Men followed their Star . . . a Babe was born in Bethlehem almost two thousand years ago. Today, as then, His message of Peace and Good Will shines brightly in the hearts of men . . . a beacon of hope to light the way to a better world for all. In the true spirit of that message, age-old, yet ever young, we wish for everyone, everywhere, a Christmas rich in the joy of blessings received . . . bright with promise of happiness, deep and abiding, through all the years to come.
