

Barnum Students Eat Turkey Dinner

Barnumites found a dinner fit for a king awaiting them last Wednesday at luncheon. Nine 20 pound gobblers went into the kitchen served to them for the annual turkey dinner at Barnum. Mashed potatoes with gravy, dressing, peas, chocolate milk, cup cakes and cranberry sauce went along with the turkey to fill up the stomachs of students. Tickets were bought in advance so the kitchen would have enough on hand to meet the demand. Eighth graders got a schedule change last Wednesday. Students with general language or study hall twice a week and gym three times a week and vice versa, had their Wednesday class switched to the class formerly occupying two periods a week.

Students with gym and art also had the Wednesday class changed for a study hall. Students with band three times a week and gym, general language or study hall on Thursday and Friday had first hour changes.

BOY SCOUTS

B-5 To Perform For New Troop

Troop B-5 will be host to the first meeting of new troop B-27 at the Baldwin school gym tonight. The new group is being sponsored by the Men's Club of the First Baptist church.

B-5 Scoutmaster Tom Austin, assistant Senior Patrol Leader Phil Barger and the scouts and explorers will perform the customary troop ceremonies and demonstrate signaling for the benefit of the new troop.

B-5 will hold its final board of review for awards in 1953. Gil Gilchrist scoutmaster of B-27 and his assistant Lee Slinger will be present at this meeting to learn first-hand policy. Meanwhile, they are busy recruiting all boys over 11 years old who want to join a scout troop.

Troop B-4 Begins Clothing Drive

December 14 will be "C" Day in Operation Drygoods for members of Boy Scout Troop B-4.

Scouts will bring wearable discarded clothing to troop headquarters for distribution by the Salvation Army. Operation Drygoods is but one of the various Christmas projects being planned by the troop.

Persons interested in contributing old clothing for Christmas distribution are asked to contact either the Salvation Army or any member of Troop B-4.
