

Brides Hold Spotlight in Holiday Activities

Gwendolyn Uppleger Wears Sister's Gown

An ivory slipper satin gown fashioned with a colonial motif was worn by Gwendolyn Uppleger for her marriage to Peter Henry Cook. The gown, previously worn by her sister, Mrs. Ernest Meussen, was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline of illusion with rose pointe lace.

A Juliet lace cap trimmed with pearls held in place her fingertip veil. She carried a white prayer book topped with white orchids and ivy. Her only jewelry, a strand of pearls, was a gift of the groom.

The Rev. Reginald Becker officiated at the candlelight double-ring ceremony at 8 p. m., Nov. 27, in Embury Methodist church.

THE BRIDE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin E. C. Uppleger, 847 Emmons street. Peter's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Cook of Detroit.

Mary Lou Gregory was the honor attendant wearing a waltz length forest green velvet dress. She carried bronze mums with a matching headpiece. Margaret Ann Parkin and Mary Elizabeth Winstler were bridesmaids. They wore gowns identical to the maid of honor's and carried yellow mums with matching headpieces. Gerald LeFevre of Detroit was best man. Seating the guests were John Burleigh, Charles Chace of Grand Rapids and Charles Scheicher of Detroit.

MRS. UPPLER chose a mauve gown of crepe and lace with matching headpiece. She wore a corsage of sweetheart roses. The bridegroom's mother wore an ice blue waltz length dress with light blue accessories and a corsage of rubrum lilies.

Following a reception in the church parlors for 200 guests, the couple left for a Northern wedding trip. For going away, the new Mrs. Cook wore a French blue suit with white and navy accessories and a white orchid corsage. They will make their home in Detroit.

MRS. JERROLD A. FROST, JR.

Nancy Jane McKenzie's Attendants Wear Mink

Nancy Jane McKenzie was gowned in white Italian silk taffeta for her marriage to Jerrold Armour Frost, Jr., at noon, Nov. 28, in Dun Scotus chapel.

The fitted basque was accented by long sleeves and seed pearl netlette applique etched the portrait neckline. Princess panels fell into a voluminous skirt ending in a cathedral train. Her tiered veil of illusion was held by a princess cap of taffeta appliqued with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white orchids with philodendron.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Curtis McKenzie of Lahser road. Jerrold's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jerrold A. Frost of Cranbrook road.

MRS. GEORGE Dadaakis of Harrison, N. Y., was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Molly Connelly and Cornelia Ford, both of New York City; Mrs. J. A. Earl of Grosse Pointe; Jane McKenzie, sister of the bride; and Judith Frost, sister of the groom.

All attendants wore mink trimmed white taffeta floor length gowns with snugly fitted mink trimmed jackets. Small caps of taffeta formed their headpieces. They carried bouquets of brown cymbidium orchids.

J. A. Frost was best man. Seating the guests were Donald Rogers, Alexander Brede of Lansing, William A. Plummer of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., Mark Jung of Sheboygan, Wis., Roger W. Asten, James Bean of Royal Oak and Jack C. McKenzie, brother of the bride.

MRS. MCKENZIE attended the wedding and reception, following in the Detroit Golf club, in a sapphire blue satin and velvet gown with a blue satin hat. Mrs. Frost wore a multicolored feather hat with her gray ensemble. Both mothers had purple orchids pinned to their bags.

For her wedding trip to Florida, Nancy Jane wore a beige costume suit with beaded cuffs, brown accessories and a white orchid.

MRS. PETER H. COOK

Phyllis Chapel Wed In Morning Ceremony

Phyllis Marjorie Chapel became the bride of James McHattom May at 11 a. m., Nov. 27, in the First Presbyterian church. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Alan W. Chapel of Ypsilanti. The Rev. W. Glen Harris officiated.

Phyllis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Neuman Chapel, 545 Madison avenue. James' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. May of Grosse Pointe.

The bride was gowned in egg-shell brocaded satin fashioned with a wide V-neckline. The moulded princess lines fell into a full skirt. A halo of white veiled held in place her 'fusse tip' veil. She carried white fuji mums.

The groom, from Trenton, N. J., wore a grey-blue silk ensemble for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. May was gowned in smoky rose lace.

NANCY Louise Chapel was her cousin's only attendant. She wore a grey-green silk satin street length gown and a small veiled headpiece. She carried a bouquet of bronze fuji mums.

Myron May was best man. Assisting as ushers were Robert O. May, Jr., brother of the groom, from St. Clair Shores, and Fred Brewer, brother-in-law of the

THE WEDDING breakfast was held at Betsford Inn. For her wedding trip to Chicago and Wisconsin, Phyllis wore a grey flannel suit with navy and red accessories. When they return, they will reside with the bride's parents.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beck of Willowby, O., and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dolan of Greenville.

MRS. JAMES M. MAY

Jamaica Honeymoon For the Frank Tones

A honeymoon to Jamaica was the destination of the new Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tone III, following their marriage Nov. 27 in Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. Perry R. Williams read the rites at 4 p. m. before a setting of chrysantheums and white snapdragons and candelabra.

The bride, Elizabeth Whitelaw, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hugh Whitelaw, 1052 Waddington, Bloomfield Township. Frank's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jerome Tone, Jr., of Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Elizabeth's princess gown of candlelight Italian silk taffeta was fashioned with an off-shoulder neckline detailed with seed pearl netlette applique and a fitted bouce. The voluminous skirt fell into a cathedral train. A princess cap of taffeta, rosepointe lace held her tiered veil of silk illusion. A pair of Amour and orchids comprised her bouque.

Attendants were gowned alike in ballerina length frocks of American Beauty taffeta fashioned with petal necklines and full skirts of unpressed pleats. Small hats of taffeta and net formed their headpieces. They wore white gloves and carried fuji mums.

FROM Denver, Colo., came Mrs. Richard Downing, Jr., to act as her sister's matron of honor. Assisting was worn by Ruth Rafuse, niece of the bride and maid of honor. She carried a colonial bouquet of bronze mums.

Richard Clark was his brother's best man, assisted by Robert Primer and Roger Brunner, shipmates of the groom at Newport, B. I., as ushers.

Mrs. Starbard was dressed in a pink printed silk street length gown with black accessories and a pink rose corsage. For her son's marriage, Mrs. Clark chose a rose lace dress with navy accessories and a fitted bouce.

A wedding reception was held at Orange hall, Worcester, following the ceremony. On Nov. 21, the couple was honored at a reception at the home of Arthur's brother, Orrin, 551 Catalpa.

WILLIAM R. Tone was his brother's best man. Ushers were Jeremiah B. Gillette of Wing Lake, L. E. Charles K. Watters of Syracuse, Daniel Daley of Buffalo, Cross by Perry of Niagara Falls and Charles H. Whitelaw, Jr.

Mrs. Whitelaw chose a rose beige taffeta dress with green accents. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige dress with matching hat.

A reception for the family and guests was held at Orchard Lake Country club. For her traveling costume, Elizabeth wore a navy gabardine suit with blue and red accessories.

OUT-OF-TOWN wedding guests included Mrs. H. T. Abernathy,

Wedding Destination Laurentian Highlands

Eloise Day and Nelson Berkeley Noland were married at 4 p. m., Nov. 28, in Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. Hunsdon Cary of Sandusky, Ohio, cousin of the groom, and the Rev. Harold Towne of St. James church, officiated.

Eloise is the daughter of Mrs. Vance Hinman Day, 1430 Henrietta, and the late Mr. Day. Nelson is the son of Mrs. William Churchill Noland of Richmond, Va., and the late Mr. Noland.

The bride chose a princess gown of candlelight, satin for her wedding. The fitted basque was accented by long sleeves and a portrait neckline of lace etched with seed pearls. The voluminous skirt of lustrous satin fell in graceful folds and swept into a Cathedral train. Her many-tiered veil of silk illusion was secured by a princess cap of heriotum infants lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and white fuji chrysantheums.

NANCY Breckenridge of New York City acted as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Anne Bennett, Susan Hubbard, Mary Stringer and Mrs. George T. Trumbull, Jr., of Franklin, Ind.

Her maids were gowned alike in floor-length dresses of aquamarine taffeta. Empire jackets covered their shoulders and wisps of veiling formed their headpieces. The bridesmaids carried yellow mums and the maid of honor, yellow and bronze mums.

George William Duffield of Grosse Pointe was best man. Seating guests were Raymond Ives, Hugh Nutter, John Worcester and Charles Hicks, all of Grosse Pointe; Michael Carey of Bloomfield Hills and J. Ross Newell of Richmond, Va.

MRS. DAY attended the wedding and reception at Bloomfield Hills Country club wearing a two-piece dress of navy peau de soie with mauve hat and pink gloves. Mrs. Noland's veil had matched her two-piece sheer grape wool dress. For going away the bride wore a brown wool suit with deep collar and cuffs of black velvet and a matching black hat. Following their wedding trip to the Laurentian Highlands, Eloise and Nelson will make their home in Franklin.

MRS. NELSON B. NOLAND

College Honors Youth From Southeast Area

By JANE STAGG
Staff Correspondent
LI 9-3856

SOUTHEAST OF BIRMINGHAM—Mr. and Mrs. James E. Rovyter, students at Anderson college, Anderson, Ind., spent the Thanksgiving holiday with their parents, the Louis Rovyters of Glenwood avenue.

James has recently been accepted for the 1953-54 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." He was selected by fellow students for ability, leadership, character and extracurricular activity. Juniors and seniors with 1.5 averages are eligible. Rovyter, a junior, is vice president of the Fraternity club, a member of the varsity golf team and Christianity in Action. He is majoring in psychology and minoring in Bible study.

Friday evening Mrs. John Clark returned to her home on Olivia avenue with her two small sons after spending four weeks visiting her mother, Mrs. L. A. Bierley at her home in Ocala, Fla.

Sunday Richard Swart returned to his home on Groveland avenue after spending the weekend with his brother's family, the Ernest Swarts of Rochester, N. Y. Later this week he expects to return to Rochester for his wife and daughter who extended their visit there.

Janet Schreiber, a student at Michigan State college, spent the holiday with her parents, the Wilbur Schreiber of Trafford road.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Richard Doyle invited four playmates to her home on Groveland to help celebrate the fifth birthday of her daughter Cynthia. Mary Ann Higgins, Susan Clements, Sally Beck and Susan Sarnowski all of Groveland were there. Mark and Craig

Mr. and Mrs. John Combes, who with their children John and Linda, recently moved to Groveland avenue from Grosse Pointe spent Thanksgiving Day with her parents, the Richard Roney, at their apartment in the Parkstone. Completing the family group were the Richard B. Roney of Grosse Pointe.

MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR CLARK

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Visit in Birmingham

The Wesley Methodist church in Worcester, Mass., was the scene Nov. 14 of the marriage of Jean Starbudd and Arthur Clark. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Starbudd of Worcester and his parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ora Clark of 911 Smith.

For their honeymoon, the couple spent a few days in Boston and then came to Birmingham for a visit. Arthur left Dec. 3 for a world naval cruise and the new Mrs. Clark will reside with her parents until he returns.

Jean chose a floor length gown fashioned with a white satin bodice pagella. Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of white chrysantheums over taffeta. Her fingertip veil was gathered to a white satin helmet headpiece trimmed with and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Tinsman, all of Kansas City, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Tinsman of Davenport, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Schmidt and daughter, Dona, from Derby, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Gustav F. Watters and daughter, Joan, from Syracuse, N. Y.; Mrs. William J. Daly and son, Peter, of Buffalo, N. Y.; and Richard Downing, Jr., of Denver, Colo.

MRS. FRANK J. TONE, III

Cast in Denison Play

Robert C. Whitlatch, freshman at Denison university, is taking the part of David, son of Gomer, in the University Theater presentation of "A Match for the Devil." He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Whitlatch, 707 Lakeview drive.