Scouts Take Part In Christmas Show

"Joy to the World" were words inspired by the birth of a child and they are the theme of the annual Christmas show of Birmingham branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association.

With the child in mind, the Garden Club has sponsored Girl Scout troop 307. This troop will have a large part in the show, to be held from 3 until 9 p.m., Dec. 5, at the Community House.

Aided by their leader, Mrs. Donald Dittrich, the Scouts made two displays, "Confers of Michigan" and "Winter Food for the Birds from Michigan Trees and Shrubs." The first display will include branches and cones to aid in identifying the pine, spruce, hemlock, fir and cedar trees.

The second exhibit will include charts and samples of various vines and berry bushes which provide winter food for our feathered friends.

Christmas story. Mrs. Donovan Gray and Mrs. C. E. Obermeyer are in charge of this work.

Mrs. Craig Richey, as general chairman of the Christmas show has arranged a wide program with the aid of Mrs. Everett Wells, co-chairman, Mrs. Newin Barvas and Mrs. J. J. Hogan. Mrs. William McCullum will handle judging details.

MacDonald as chairman; Out-of-Doors - Wreathes and Swags, headed by Mrs. John Kissel; and Mantels, by Mrs. Ed Alexander.
