Marion Hesz Is Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hesz, 1723 Maryland boulevard announce the engagement of their daughter, Marion, to Robert E. Berges, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Berges of 1880 West Lincoln.

The bride was graduated from Habersham high school and is attending Wayne university. Her fiancé was graduated from the same school, received a bachelor of science degree, from Northwestern university, and his master of arts degree from the University of Michigan.

A June wedding is being planned.

Organ Society Presents Chord Demonstration

Monthly meeting of the Birmingham Hammond Organ Society is scheduled for 8 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. 9, at Grinnell Bros. Patricia and Joseph Zabelski will be presented in a Christmas program of vocal and Hammond organ compositions. They are newcomers who have established music studios in Birmingham and he teaches the Hammond organ at Grinnell's.

By popular demand there will also be a Hammond chord demonstration. The Hammond Chord organ is designed for those who yearn to play music but lack the time or patience to take lessons, for those who have forgotten their childhood music lessons and for those who feel they are too old to learn to play an instrument.

Program will include "Un Bel De Vietnam" from Madam Butterfly sung by Mrs. Zabelski. Conclusion in the holiday spirit will be Christmas carols sung by all present.

Puppeteers To Entertain AAUW

The Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women will hold its Christmas luncheon meeting on Dec. 9 at the Birmingham Community House.

Representing the study groups of the organization, Mrs. Thomas P. Sharpless will introduce the Puppeteers who will provide the program for the day.

"The Tale of the Red Cap" adapted by Mrs. Charles H. Bishop from the book "This Way to Christmas" by Ruth Sawyer will be dramatized by four members of the study group. They are Mrs. Merrill J. Anderson, Mrs. M. A. Remondino, Mrs. Frank Mosher and Mrs. William Martin.

The puppets are made and costumed by the members of the Puppeteers as are the backdrop and scenery. The presentation will be made from the new large stage. The Puppeteers give programs for schools, private parties, hospitals and institutions.

Visit Daughter at MSC During Sorority Parties

At Michigan State college, Alpha Gamma Delta girls are in a frenzy of activities in connection with the opening of their new sorority house at 833 Charles street.

The program will include a homecoming reception, open house for members of all campus fraternities and sororities and a dance.

Among Birmingham and the attending some of the festive events were Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Weaver, 1810 Cambridge, who visited their daughter Joan.

Kappa Deltas To Hear Mutschler Review Book

Herbert Mutschler of the Royal Oak Public Library will speak to the South Oakland chapter of Kappa Delta sorority on Tuesday. He will review the book "The Trail and The Sky."

Mrs. Harvey Horton, 1914 Greenleaf drive, Royal Oak will be hostess. Assisting as co-hostesses will be Mrs. Gordon Fowle and Mrs. Clara Robertson.
