Mr. and Mrs. Adams Have Southern Trip

Alencon lace was applied on the ivory satin gown worn by Nancy Joan Morse for her marriage to Jerry Weeman Adams. Pearls and sequins adorned the bodice where the net yoke was joined and pearls were also on the sleeves which came to points over the wrists.

Tiny cut-outs of lace flowers outlined with pearls were sprinkled over the train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a matching lace cap. She carried baby ivory colored orchids with maroon centers.

The Rev. Arnold F. Runkel performed the ceremony at 4:30 p.m., Dec. 30, in the First Methodist church.

Nancy Joan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Jennings Morse of Eton road. Jerry's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Adams of Chicago.

MRS. JOHN Ralph Milligan, Jr., of Canton, O., was her sister's matron of honor in a waltz length gown of blue iridescent paper taffeta with a shrug jacket and matching shoes. She wore a Grecian wreath of leaves adorned with tiny flowers in her hair. Her flowers were pale pink carnations and baby mums with sparkled leaves.

Carol Woodward of Wheaton, Ill., Joanne Runkel and Julie Kelly acted as bridesmaids in gowns similar to the honor attendants. They carried white carnations and baby mums.

Leonard Baldassari of Chicago was best man. Seating the guests were James Morse, brother of the bride, Robert Coffey of Peoria, Ill., and Trege Prineville of Chicago.

MRS. MORSE wore a pale pink peau-de-soie waltz length gown accented with a pearl embroidered bodice. She wore a matching hat of cut velvet leaves, matching gloves with camelias pinned to her purse. For the wedding Mrs. Adams chose a gown of brown lace over slate blue taffeta, a blue hat and gloves. To her ensemble was pinned a brown orchid.

Following supper in the Park Shelton, the new Mrs. Adams donned a gray suit with red and white accessories for their motor trip to the Southern states.
