

BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

Good and fitting advice is needed by each of us, at various times; yet how well we know that when friends are most anxious to tell us the "right" material and the fitness of a mother for so many of us often are "touchy" about "taking advice."

STARTING SUNDAY, Feb. 15 at 2 p.m., springer spaniels and their owners will have an opportunity to attend school together. Under the sponsorship of the Southern Michigan Springer Spaniel training club, a 10-weeks' course will start at the Oakland Farmers Market on 11 Mile road, Royal Oak. Indoor and outdoor classes in obedience and field work for dogs and proper gun handling and shooting for the owners are scheduled. T. A. Blessing of Detroit is handling registration for the classes.

MARKING THEIR observance of National Scout Week, Feb. 7-13, the members of Troop B-4 have a window display at McBride Hardware. The exhibit portrays a typical campout. According to Walker Calderwood, assistant scoutmaster, each patrol has contributed some feature for the display.

BIRMINGHAM RESIDENTS will be noticing several large Red Cross flags displayed in the Grand Trunk station, local banks and other public buildings within the next few days. The flags have been hung by DeHull Travis, chairman of the 1953 Red Cross fund drive in Birmingham. According to Travis, these flags have been made by hospitalized Korean servicemen who are taking this means of expressing their thanks to the Red Cross organization for the services it renders.

TROY TOWNSHIP women collected $1,316.83 for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis during their one hour March of Dimes on Jan. 29. Mrs. Leonard L. Liss, chairman of the March, said total receipts, including cards and a number of folders distributed through the schools, were $1,920.01.

EVER-EXPECT TO HAVE part of your political campaign contribution returned? Neither did Mrs. Manley Davis, of Bloomfield Hills, or Mrs. Cecil Charlton, 119 S. Adams. But that's what happened this week. By mail they both received letters from the finance committee chairman of the Citizens for Eisenhower-Nixon group in New York City, explaining that the organization had received more contributions than the campaign required. Therefore, each contributor was being returned 16 per cent of his or her contribution. A check for the appropriate amount was enclosed in the letters to Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Charlton.

OAKLAND COUNTY CIRCUIT JUDGE H. Russel Holland will speak to the Birmingham Rotary club Feb. 22 on some of the humorous incidents which have taken place in his courtroom, according to Dain Millman, Rotarian program chairman for February.

A WOODWARD AVENUE dime store is offering a Valentine special in hobby this week. According to a window sign, this special price is 98 cents per pair OR two pairs for $1.98. Get it?

'Civic Night' For Business Women

Vincent B. Watkins, Birmingham city commissioner, will discuss the proposal that the city of Birmingham become a member of the Southeastern Ohio County Sewage Treatment district at the February meeting of the Birmingham Business Women's Club. An appointment to answer questions on civic affairs will be Donald C. Eberle, city manager.

The February 19 social meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the Community House with the program to follow. Committee chairman Marian Hawkins will be assisted by Martha Castle, Ella Gandy, Margaret Baker, Helen Dean, Stella Edgar and Gertrude Fletcher.

Jule Anne Hazard Wed In Rochester, New York

Jule Ann Hazard, daughter of Mrs. Schuyler Hazard, Jr., of Webster avenue and the late Mr. Hazard, and married to George C. Thomas, a florist, was married Saturday, Feb. 10, to John R. Lawton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lawton of Rochester.

The bride and groom attended St. Mary's school of Peckskill, N.Y. and Michigan State College. Her husband is a graduate of the Remond Institute of Technology. The couple will make their home in Rochester.

Paintings by Former Residents Are Center of Midwinter Show

The midwinter exhibition at the Little Gallery, 1918 W. Grand, opened yesterday around the work of Robert Gates and William Gifford, both former Michigan residents now on the faculty of the art department of the American University in Washington, D. C.

Gates studied sculpture with Carl Milles and painting with Zem Senapey of Cranbrook, recently having degree there. Gates attended the Becker School of Painting and the Society of Arts and Crafts of Detroit.

Café's oils and watercolors were exhibited at the Little Gallery at this time two years ago. He draws upon a wide range of subjects in his painting and sculpture.

The workgroup of Robert Gates also centers on abstractions, with color the predominant feature. Included in this exhibition are "Two Figures in Green", "Mountain Stream Course" and "Firefly".

THE MIDWINTER show also includes a collection of busts painted by Peggie Gifford, recently returned to Europe last year. The Italian vase and jugs range in size from small irregular shaped statuettes.

The show will remain at the gallery until March 10.

West Coast Wedding For Miss Coryell

Betty Coryell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Coryell of Orchard Lake road, and Frederick E. Seike, repeated their nuptials today before the Rev. Harry L. Reserve in San Francisco's First Unitarian Church late Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Seike of Fairfax, Calif., are the parents of the bride. The bride stood at the altar in a ballerina gown of white satin with a long-sleeved jacket of chamois lace. Tulle formed both her bantam overskirt and fingertip veil. She carried white stephanotis centerpieces with pink carnations.

The bride's attendants were a pink satin ballerina with a tulip overskirt and stole in a shorter style of pink. Her bouquet was a quiver of blue hydrangeas.

Among those ushering was Rev. L. Coryell, Jr., who flew from Cincinnati, Ohio, for his sister's wedding.

MR. AND MRS. Seike left for a week in Carmel, Calif., after a reception at the Fox Hostess House of San Francisco. For traveling the bride donned a sapphire blue knit sweater with pink accessories and a skirt with a pink border.

The newlyweds will return to make their home in San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Coryell will return after spending several months on the coast.

Other guests at the wedding were Mrs. Robert Lloyd of Birmingham and her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Scott of Palo Alto, Calif.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

To Insure a Continuation of . . .

Economical Administration, Experienced Administration
Progressive Programming, Fair and Impartial Treatment

Re-Elect

DAVID ANDERSON

—Supervisor

On Monday, February 16

Dear Fellow Citizen:

I have served Bloomfield Township as an elected official for 21 years. From 1932 to 1950 I held the office of Treasurer. In 1950 Peter Vaughan retired from the office of Supervisor and the Township Board appointed me to fill the vacancy. In April of 1951 the voters elected me to continue in that office. My record of service has been a conscientious and honest effort to provide good government and good governmental services to Bloomfield Taxpayers. It has brought low cost administration and fair treatment to all concerned. It has provided progressive planning so that the development of our area is something we can be proud of. Our Zoning Ordinance is modern and protects property values as you citizens wish them protected. I have the old-fashioned idea that a public official should put the taxpayers' needs above personal politics; not to waste money just for "show". During the past 2 years as supervisor, your Township's services to you have been greatly improved yet taxes have been kept low. Your fire and police protection have been greatly improved and when warranted, will be further developed to serve you even better. From what your neighbors and fellow citizens say, I feel I am doing my work competently and loyally. If re-elected I will continue to be your faithful official and exert every effort to make Bloomfield Township the kind of place you will enjoy living in—for today and in the years to come.

DAVID E. ANDERSON

Here are but a few of YOUR NEIGHBORS in Bloomfield Township who know the candidates and who want you to know that they support Mr. Anderson for re-election!

GREEN'S for ART SUPPLIES BRUSHES OIL, WATER COLORS PASTELS

YOU MAY NOT REALIZE HOW IMPORTANT THE PRIMARY ELECTION ON FEBRUARY 16 IS.

But . . . it is the election that determines how well your local grass-roots unit of government in Bloomfield Township is administered, and your family should work with care the qualifications of those elected officials who will serve you.
