MRS. RICHARD P. HOLMES

R. P. Holmes Claims Bride At Cranbrook

Jeanne Van Putten and Richard P. Holmes, after their double-ring vows before the Rev. Robert Witt on the altar of the Christ Church Cranbrook chapter at seven o'clock Saturday evening.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Van Putten of Royal Oak, was in a dress of champagne lace which fell over her left shoulder. Her lace-trimmed accessories completed her costume and she carried a rosemary arrangement of tiny orchids.

The bride's only attendant was her cousin, Mary Ann Schefer of Detroit.

THE GROOM, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace L. Holmes of Sheridan Hills, Mich., was also assisted by his uncle, Robert Brattan.

Mrs. Van Putten attended her daughter's nuptials in a blue silk dress, while her maid of honor, Mrs. Holmes chose a pale blue dress in silk to wear with a flowered hat and silver accessories. Both wore old lace gloves.

After a reception at Oakland Hills Country Club the newlyweds left for Chicago on a brief wedding trip. On their return they will reside temporarily in Beverly Hills.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

W. H. Malone II Claims Bride in St. Louis Vows

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Rammar of Franklin, Ill., announced the marriage of their daughter, Mary Susan, to William Haynes Malone II of Park Ridge, Ill., son of Alfred J. Malone of Yosemite Avenue, Birmingham, and Mrs. Edith G. Malone, deceased, Ill.

The candlelight ceremony was performed at five o'clock Saturday afternoon, February 1, in the chapel of the St. Louis Assumption Church of St. Louis, Mo., in the presence of the immediate members of families and close friends of the young couple.

The pale peach shade was carried out in her nylon illusion veil which fell from a Juliet cap bordered in white satin and seed pearls.

A cascade arrangement of gladioli in pastel shades of peach and pink was the bouquet she bore.

J. Anne Radafail was her maid of honor in a ballerina-length of turquoise tulle and sheer silk with a matching shawl collar. She carried a pink carnation bouquet of pale pink carnations.

Peter Grimm Malone of Park Ridge, Ill., was his brother-in-law. Harry Schwenpe and Karl Plepler, fraternity brothers of the groom, at Westminster College, Fulton, Mo., attended the guests.

The bride's only attendant was her cousin, Mary Ann Schefer of Detroit.

THE BRIDE regaled her voice in a ballerina-length gown of pale peach alyon tulle with an applique of white lace on the bouffant skirt matching the lace of her short bolero.

The pale peach shade was carried out in her nylon illusion veil which fell from a Juliet cap bordered in white satin and seed pearls.

A small reception at the Washington Hotel followed the services. After a short wedding trip the couple returned to the city.

The bride, a graduate of William Woods College, Fulton, Mo., is attending Washington University, St. Louis, where she is an affiliated Delta Delta Delta. She is a senior in a senior at Westminster College where his fraternity is Phi Gamma Delta.

After June graduation the couple plan to reside in Washington, D. C., while the groom attends officer training classes with the Marine Corps.

After a reception at Oakland Hills Country Club the newlyweds left for Chicago on a brief wedding trip. On their return they will reside temporarily in Beverly Hills.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
