Chalk Talk Will Highlight Women's Club March Program

A business meeting and program will follow the dessert and coffee socialized for one o'clock hour scheduled for the Lathrup Baldwin Public Library.

On the program will be Arthur Sinclair, who will present "The Lighter Side," a humorous chalk talk which includes several brilliant pictures to illustrate his themes while he talks.

SINCLAIR received his early training at the Chicago Art Institute and has experience in other fields of art, particularly in creative work, and in editing and illustrating industrial magazines.

An artistic amateur natured, Sinclair devotes his leisure to a nature program which he has developed for boys' camps in the Detroit area.

Joan Gassaway will play Handel Concerto in G Minor on the oboe, and John Boult on the flute, while Mrs. John Gassaway, Jr., plays the piano.

Joan will join with John Parrott on the clarinet and John Boult on the flute in presenting Oliverio's Scherzetto.
