Bride Selects Satin For Saturday Morning Ceremony

A gown of white skinner satin with a cathedral train was worn by Lorraine Harriman when she became the bride of Frank L. Lewandowski, Jr., in the First Scots college chapel Saturday morning.

The official high Mass was said by Father Robert.

A pastel of Chantilly lace extended down the length of the bride's skirt, and her bateau neckline was edged in seed pearls. Her cape of imported French rosepoint lace was appliqued with satin and seed pearls and held two flowing layers of net.

The bride carried a bouquet of massed gardenias tied with trailing tulle.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Louis Barrieau of Oakland avenue, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Lewandowski of Detroit are the groom's parents.

TOAST TAFFETA gown with bouffant skirts and fitted bodice trimmed in brown velvet were worn by honor attendant Maureen Duffy.

Have You Met... Mr. and Mrs. Leslie H. Blair and their two-year-old daughter, Janet. The Blairs moved from Bartlesville, Okla., to 1772 Grand road in November. Blair is a patent writer for Dearborn Motors Corporation. His hobby is photography.

A BUFFET breakfast reception at the Carpenter's hall followed the ceremony. When the couple left on a wedding trip to Chicago and up-der Wisconsin the new Mrs. Lewandowski was wearing an aqua suit with alligator accessories and a brown straw hat. She pinned a white orchid to her lapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewandowski will make their home in Detroit after February 14.
