

Barnum Counselor Quarton Speaker

"Growing With Your Family" will be the subject of a talk by Malcolm Tindall, boys' counselor at Barnum school, to Quarton school parents and teachers at 7:45 p.m. Thursday, January 22, in the school gym.

A January meeting of the Quarton PTA was not scheduled but, because they were able to secure Tindall, the board decided to call a "bonus" meeting.

Tindall's experience as counselor qualifies him to speak with authority on the subject of effective discipline and how the society of the home and neighborhood affects the social and physical growth of the child.

He will also touch on the responsibility which the child has to the community and how parents can best make the child aware of this duty.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—call the society editor about them.

Carol M. Schulte To Be June Bride

A late December dinner at the Detroit Yacht Club, attended by both families, revealed the wedding plans of Carol Marie Schulte and Howard Edward Ross.

Carol is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Schulte of Benfrew drive, Sherwood Forest, Detroit, and is in her senior year at Marygrove College.

Her fiancé's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stone of Bedford road, Beverly Hills. He attended the University of Detroit and Sophia University in Tokyo.

The couple are planning June 27 nuptials.

U. of M. Alumnae Making Plans For A Benefit Bridge

"Cards for college" will be the order of the day Friday, February 6, when local University of Michigan alumnae will hold their annual benefit "telephone" card party.

The yearly benefit is the only money-raising project of the year for the Alumnae, with funds going to the local group's scholarship fund.

Last year over 100 tables of bridge or canasta were in session on the appointed date.

THIS YEAR'S play will begin at two in the afternoon and continue until four o'clock. The evening tables will convene at 8:30 p.m. Results will be tabulated via phone by the various hostesses.

Mrs. Ralph H. Scheel this year's committee which includes the Messing, Robert House, Frank Howell, Guy Pitts, George Heidemman, S. N. Brunl, G. T. Christiansen, Dwight Easton, Arthur McDonald, John Cole, Walter Powers, LeRoy G. Vandever, F. Gordon Davis, Hugh McLeese, H. D. MacGregor, Edward E. Codner, Allan Biles and Frederick Sevin.

The Stanley Browns plan to break up the mid-January slump tonight with a square dance and buffet supper party at the Franklin Community Hall with guests coming from Birmingham, Pontiac and Franklin. Franklin's Art Carly will call the dances.

Wing Lake Farms, Inc., has planned a square dance to be held at the Birmingham Community House on Jan. 30. The last affair was such a success that the association plans to have one square dance each month.

The Franklin Community association will hold a public square dance, ballroom dance and buffet supper at the Community Hall on Jan. 30. No reservation is necessary. Art Carly will call the tunes at this affair, also.

Phil Van Dyke, president of the association, reports that plans are under way for a dinner party for an as yet undetermined date in February.

The largest turnout in the history of the Franklin Community association occurred last Tuesday, with 94 members attending the annual smorgasbord dinner and business meeting.

March 11 is the date of the Association's hockey party. Reservations should be made at once. Two buses, with room for 116 passengers, will provide transportation to and from the Red Wing-Chicago Blackhawk game at the Olympia. Tickets may be obtained from Phil Van Dyke or Bob Mitchell or Jack Roberts.

Recently elected officers of the Woodcrest Farms civic association are Watson Kinney, president; Donald Horton, vice-president; William Fuchsler, secretary; Fred Misicki, treasurer. Directors are Dr. C. C. Birkelo and Norman Kreidler. Preston Schlotterbeck remains on the board. The group plans prompt action on recreation facilities for the Woodcrest youngsters, starting with a skating rink on the green. As the weather permits, a playground will be established with a keshell diamond and outdoor grill. All lot owners are being canvassed with the expectation of bringing all Woodcresters into the association. The next meeting will be Jan. 29.

Mrs. Charles Brown, Woodcreek, arranged a surprise birthday party for her husband last Saturday at their home. The 30 guests, mostly from Woodcreek, gathered on the "bill" in the Brown house and paraded to the door singing "Happy Birthdays," led by Dick Norwall on the occasion. Fred Misicki with a drum and Bill Weightman with a horn. Spotted in the contingent were the Watson Kinneys, the Eric Jansons, the Clare McKays, the Art Thureasons, the Norman Krieders, Dr. and Mrs. Clare Lewis, the Vern Fishers, the Lloyd Nelsons and the Preston Schlotterbecks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Smith, who left before Christmas for a Florida vacation, returned to their Apple-tree lane home last Wednesday. They made holiday headquarters at the Alden apartment hotel at St. Petersburg Beach and spent some time in side trips to points of historical and scenic interest.

The Live Wire club will meet at 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, Jan. 20 for a dinner and business meeting at the home of Mrs. Herbert McCreeby on Carol street.

Cub Scouts will resume activities with a meeting to be held at 7:30 p.m. next Thursday, Jan. 22, at the Franklin Community Hall.

Composition By Localite Will Be Played Sunday

Alma B. Grimes of West Frank street has submitted a string number for two violins, two cellos and two violas, to be played at the winter concert of the Michigan Composers Club.

The concert will be held in the Keeler Union ballroom of Central Michigan College, Mt. Pleasant, at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, January 18.

Norman C. Dietz, faculty member, is chairman of the program. Mrs. Grimes has also prepared two piano preludes for the Royal Oak Musicals' April program which will be devoted to music by Michigan composers.

Puppeteers Begin Year

The Birmingham Puppeteers will hold their first meeting of the new year at eight o'clock Tuesday evening, January 20, at the home of Frank N. Mosher, 312 Chesternut road.

Anyone interested in joining the group is asked to contact Mrs. Mosher or Mrs. Charles A. Bigelow, 31236 Pierce street.

Have You Met . . . Farmer Detroiters, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stanley Perry and their three-year-old daughter, Candace Joanne? They have been making their home at 1772 Torry road since November. Perry is with the Shell Oil Company.
