Local P.E.O. Chapter Marks Founders' Day With Program

Monday, February 2, will be Founders' Day for members of PEO Sisterhood Co-Operative of Oakland County. Marking the occasion will be a 12:45 p.m. luncheon at the Community House with a program following at 2 p.m.

Mrs. T. Melbourne Roberts of Yosemite avenue, a member of chapter L, Wayne County PEO, will present an "All American" program compiled from the works of American writers.

Entirely in verse, Mrs. Roberts has entitled her presentation, "Sonnets for the Seasons."

Reservations for the luncheon and program are being taken by Mrs. Fred J. Zoellin of Pleasant avenue prior to January 22.

PEO, AN INTERNATIONAL organization, is made up of Christian women interested in furthering philanthropic projects and promoting the education of young women. Members have established an educational loan fund which has helped to educate over 10,000 girls.

PEO owns and operates a junior college for girls in Nevada, Mo., and their newest venture is in international relations through international scholarships for girls.

at the home of the Paul Simons of Royal Oak, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Bailey of Huntington Woods, who are moving to New York.

Randy McKay, Keeper of the Buckskins, brought the nibs for Cub Scout Den 5 last week. The boys played a safety game.

Den 3 practiced the flag ceremony and made molds to put on plaques. Terry Roberts was host. Brian Morris, Keeper of the Buckskins for Den 1 reports that Cub's of his den finished shooing their wishing wells. Bobby Siltz brought nibs.

Den 2 discussed traveling and made plans for their trip to the Edison Institute. Mrs. Don Brown is the new den mother assisting Mrs. Weber Young. Tommy Kirby furnished the nibs, as did Donny Palmer for Den 4, which also made plans for Saturday's trip. Johnny Caldwell is back with this den.

In connection with the January theme, "Transportation," the Cubs spent last Saturday at Edison Institute. They went to the sports car exhibit. Dads accompanying the boys were Bill Unsworth, Bob Sutton, Phil Burdick, Weber Young, Arthur Allen, Albert Moore and Norman Mealy. This trip took the place of the regular January pack meeting. Junior Big met Friday evening at the school with games, movies and refreshments. Mrs. John Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Graber were chaperones.

February Wedding Plans Announced
The engagement of Judith Gundliche of 1100 W. Villa road to Daniel Mills Sylvester, also of Villa road, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Edstrom, Sr., of Dearborn.

Mrs. Hauser is a graduate of Dearborn High School. Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Forrest Sylvester of Omaha, Neb., is a graduate of Harvard University and a member of Phi Gamma Delta.

The wedding will take place in February.
