the Southampton Story -

Southampton is smartness, and this is the story of lean, handsome clothes that go together in a carefully put together way. The fabrics are the beginning of the story. To obtain color and distinguished appearance, the clothes are cut from a paisley print. It's an open, defined paisley, very men's wear on ancient madder red, green and ivory grounds. Bates made the prints for these clothes alone on their disciplined cotton. It's loomed of long fibers, combed 'til it shines, and then made to behave by chemistry.

There are other parts to the story:

- the blazer— Cut like a man's. Traditional details include three patch pockets, vent back and ocean pearl buttons. It is wonderfully new, is lightweight and washable. $19.95
- jamaica shorts— Not short shorts but Jamaica—a particularly flattering wearable length. They're tailored by a man. The legs are creased. Belt loops, front pockets and a side zipper complete their complement. $5.95
- man's shirt— Made in cotton like a Brooks Brothers pullover. Cut full with back pleat to give it an easy going way. Long sleeves. $9.95
- pleated skirt— Unexpected in cotton. Twenty-four pleats each edgestitched—their way of being washable. Print and pleats perfectly scaled so pattern matches shirt—if you want the look of a paisley dress. $16.95
- the vest— Combines a trim front with a sun back. The vest is fully lined, has two pockets with flaps, and a double button adjustment in neck strap. Worn with the paisley skirt, the versatile vest makes a sun dress; with shorts, a playsuit. $7.95
- sleeveless shirt— A comfortable, go anywhere top. Collar band neck wears well dressed up or casual. $6.95

If you're going South, remember the Southampton Story.
