Helen Carolyn Kurtz Is Wed In Redeemer Lutheran Church

A wedding with international overtones took place Tuesday afternoon, December 30, at the Redeemer Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Theodore Wegman, Jr., performed the double-ring ceremony between Helen Carolyn Kurtz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Kurtz of West Brown street, and Henrik Goran Langhjem of Helsingfors, Finland.

The groom, a design student at the Cranbrook Academy of Art, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nils Langhjem of Helsingfors.

The bride's semi-formal gown was fashioned of antique ivory tulle with a portrait neckline embroidered with pearls. Her illusion veil was held by a small Dutch cap of pearl-studded lace and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Elizabeth Kurtz was her sister's maid of honor. Her iridescent blue gown was styled after the bride's and she wore a tiny blue matching illusion veil. White mums formed her bouquet.

Leo G. Barber of Detroit attended the groom.

MRS. HENRIK GORAN LANGHJELM

FOR THE MARRIAGE ceremony Mrs. Kurtz wore a rose gown of silk shantung with brown accessories, and a white carnation corsage.

A reception followed at the Community House.

Among those present were the bride's sister, Mrs. Ralph M. Caruthers of Flushing, N. Y., and Nan Knecht, home from the University of Colorado.

After a short wedding trip to Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Langhjem returned to resume their studies at the Cranbrook Academy of Art. Upon the completion of the groom's advanced course in design, the couple plan to return to Finland.

Junior Dept. Speaker

R. F. Riegge will discuss "Communism" at the January 13 meeting of the junior department of the Birmingham Women's Club.

The group will meet at the home of Mrs. John E. Wilson, 231 Oakland avenue, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Walter J. Manor entertained a group of neighbors in her home on Robinwood last Tuesday evening. Guests were Mrs. Andrew Dolich, Mrs. Ward Mills, Mrs. Emmerich Klein, Mrs. Gerald Otto, Mrs. Carl VanWesell, Jr., Mrs. Arthur Zasky, Jr., Mrs. Jack Teelley and Mrs. A. Bone.

New Year's Eve the Herbert Briggs of Olivia joined the Ed Sewells and Walter Elbergs at dining at Kingsley Inn before going to the home of the Dick Griswolds in Dearborn.

The same evening the Stanley Vidas of Robinwood avenue entertained a group of neighbors at their home.

The Walter Manors also saw the New Year in with a group of friends in their home on Robinwood.

Last Sunday the Frank Novaks of Seminole gave an open house party. Among the guests were the Alvin Robinsons of Bembridge road.

Saturday evenings the Alvin Robinsons and Hans Olsons Bembrige jointly entertained a group of 50 with a buffet supper at their home. Before supper they served Fish House Punch, made from a recipe which has come from the time of Napoleon.

Also entertained Saturday evening were the Dick Ewings of Hamlet Road. Mrs. Ewing had arranged her Christmas decorations so that the recreation room was done in the traditional red and green and the other portions of the house in red and white. About 18 couples attended the open house.

Another party Saturday night was at the home of the Clark Quins of Groveland. Guests were the Jesse Birchards, Bruce Bartons and Lisle Watsons of Detroit, the Joseph Larsons and Henry Johnston.

Royal Oak Boy Scout Troop 12, which meets at the Parker School, spent Saturday tobogganing. Before returning home the boys had a cook-out. Bob Forgnan, their co-leader, supervised this activity.

Any boys in Upton or Parker School who are interested in joining this troop should notify Harry Nettie, Arlington Road, or Walter J. Manor, Robinwood Avenue.

Mrs. Robert A. Heyl returned to her home on Robinwood last Wednesday with her second son, John Walter, who was born Dec. 27.

Sunday the Stanley Crecos of Trafford Road and the Donald Johnsons of Guilford returned home after spending the New Year's weekend at the lodge of the G. W. Rohrbachs, of Detroit, near East Tawas. Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Crecos are the Rohrbachs' daughters. New Years they return to see their many friends from previous summers.

Husbands' Dinner Party

The Present Day Club has scheduled its annual "Husbands' Dinner Party" for 6:30 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 10, at the Embury Methodist Church.

The executive board is in charge of arrangements.

Tri-Delts To Gather

The north suburban evening alliance group of Delta Delta Delta will gather at the home of Mrs. Neil Hyde, 611 Chesterfield street, at eight o'clock Tuesday evening, January 13.

Mrs. Robert Livesay will be the evening's co-hostess. Members are asked to contact Mrs. Hyde for reservations.
