Cub Scout dens will meet on Thursday, Jan. 8. At their January meetings the boys will work on the theme "Transportation." The next pack meeting will be Tuesday, Jan. 20.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Banker of Comfort drive had as guests for New Year's and the weekend their daughter, Mrs. Marian Athay of Detroit, and Mrs. Banker's sister, Mrs. Mary Chazy, also of Detroit.

Newcomers at Walnut Lake are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kipp and their children, Donald, 15; Bob, 11; Bill, 10 and Barbara, 6. Formerly of Highland Park, the Kippes are renting the Jokela's house on Sunnyside drive until the completion of their home at 6728 Valley Spring court in Meadowlake Farms. Kipp is vice-president of the Kramer Bros. freight line.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kardell of Euclid drive entertained a number of guests New Year's Eve at a party in honor of Kardell's birthday, which is on New Year's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wade, of Deering Road, attended a family dinner New Year's Day at the home of Mrs. Wade's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Burnett of Detroit.

WITH THE Collegians

Among the collegians attending the holiday brunch hosted by the Detroit Wellesley Club for its undergraduates Tuesday were Ann Patterson and Charlotte Wylie of Birmingham. The group gathered at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

The social service committee of the Walnut Lake Women's Club prepared and delivered large Christmas baskets for two needy families. Funds for such projects are raised by the committee through "come-as-you-are" breakfasts.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Schumaker of Eastmore drive are Mrs. Schumaker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mark, of New York. The Marks arrived before Christmas and will stay through the month of January.

Celebrating New Year's Eve with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Shank of Inkster Road were friends from Walnut Lake, Birmingham, Walled Lake and Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Stevens and family have returned to their home on Sunnyside drive after spending the holidays with Mrs. Stevens' parents, Dr. and Mrs. Lyman W. Crossman, in Baytown, Texas. En route to and from Texas the Stevens visited Mrs. Stevens' sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cook at Indianapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Alain of Inkster Road had as New Year's Day dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Crawford of Pontiac.

Pat Parkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Parkins, of Eastman Drive, is leaving Jan. 8 to join the U. S. Naval Nurse Corps reserves.

After 10 months in Korea, Sgt. Robert Delaney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Delaney of Putnam drive, is home on leave. He arrived Saturday, Dec. 27, and celebrated a delayed Christmas with his family the next day. He will return to Korea in late January.

Also home for Christmas was his brother, Cpl. Jerry Delaney, from Fort Bragg, N. C. He returned to duty there on Sunday, Jan. 5.

Spending the holidays with the Harold Joneses of Inkster Road is Jones' uncle, Otto Carlson of Mt. Clemens.

Former Walnut Lake residents Mr. and Mrs. John Woodman were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Norton of Middlebelt Road on New Year's Eve. After having New Year's Day breakfast with the Nortons, the Woodmans went on to visit relatives in Pontiac.

After Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Richards of Walnut Lake Road and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hallett of Midland, Mich., returned to Midland and from there went to Owosso for skiing. The Richards' returned home on Sunday, Dec. 28.

The pupils of Mr. and Mrs. John Phelps participated in a recital at the Phelps' home on Walnut Lake Road on Monday, Dec. 29.

A daughter, Nancy Ann, was born January 3 to MR. AND MRS. FRED STINSON of East Humphrey street. Mrs. Stinson is the former Ruth Workman.

A daughter, Holly Anne, was born December 25 to DR. AND MRS. F. M. ADAMS of Washington boulevard. Mrs. Adams is the former Lianna Carpenter of Scarsdale, N. Y.

A son, William Edward, was born December 21 to MR. AND MRS. EDWARD W. BARNARD of Maryland boulevard. Mrs. Barnard is the former Dorothy Jackson.

A daughter, Carla Ann, was born December 30 to MR. AND MRS. JAMES W. BURTRAW of Oak Park. Mr. Burtraw is a former Birmingham resident.

Maj. C. F. Guilford Will Address MOMS club

Plans and a talk on Korea by Maj. Charles F. Guilford, recently returned from nine months in the area, will be presented before members of Birmingham unit 3 of the MOMS of America at the Community House next Thursday evening. A short business meeting will also be held. The eight o'clock meeting is open to the public.

Rings Reveal Betrothal News At Watchnight Cocktail Party

"Ringing out the old and in the new" was given added meaning at the New Year's Eve party in the West Long Lake road home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Milbrand.

Each guest was given a card engraved with an engagement ring and proclaiming the troth of the Milbrand's daughter Dolly to William Muleahy.

The bride-elect, a graduate of Kent Place, was home from Bennington College, Bennington, Vt., where she is a sophomore. Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Michael Muleahy of North Adams, Mass., is a 1950 graduate of Williams College.

DOLLY MILBRAND

THE COUPLE received the best wishes of friends in the living room which was banked in holiday greens and white poinsettias.

Dolly wore a ballerina gown of blush pink net over satin and a corsage of white orchids. Receiving with her were her mother in a gown of peacock blue taffeta, and sister Mary Ann, Vassar College, senior, who wore a white net dress accented with sweetheart roses.

Accompanying Dolly's fiance from the East was William Gazzaniga, also of North Adams.

AFTER MIDNIGHT guests moved to the dining room for a buffet served against a background of white tapers and a centerpiece of sweetheart roses in an heirloom container.

The newly-engaged couple are planning June nuptials.

Slides Illustrate Talk

Mrs. Clark C. Coulter will show slides and discuss her recent trip to Europe at the January 9 meeting of the north suburban members of Chi Omega.

The group will meet for luncheon at 12:30 p.m. Friday at the home of Mrs. Clay T. Price, 18083 Hart avenue, Huntington Woods. Among those assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Frederic W. Sevin of Fairfax road.
