Helping Joy celebrate were sister Judy, cousins Buddy, Dickie and Susie Roeser and Carole Saunders, Debbie Hobbs, Janice and Jane McCullough, Judy Kimball, Priscilla and Doug English, Linda, Doug, Carl and Ann Doering.

Mrs. Walter Serenberg and daughter Carol of Glenwood left by plane last Friday to spend several days in New York where they will shop and attend several shows.

The next meeting of the Lathrup PTA, Tuesday, Jan. 13, at 8 p.m., is to be a discussion on: "How Can Parents Cooperate with Teachers in Educating the Child?" and "How Can Teachers Cooperate with Parents in Educating the Child?" The method of presentation to be used is called a "Six-six Discussion", tried successfully last year, wherein the entire membership present is divided into groups of six. Each group reaches its seperate conclusions to the problem, which are afterwards presented to the group as a whole. George Ross, father vice-president, will act as moderator of the program.

Lathrup Village Woman's club met at the House in the Woods on Monday, Jan. 5, at 1:30, for a film and lecture on "Cancer, particularly in Women." Film presented through the courtesy of the American Cancer Society. The lecturer was Dr. Henry O. Coucke.
