Last Saturday, July 11, Dianne Whitley, daughter of the Reverend and Mrs. H. Whitley, Jr., of Burnham road, celebrated her ninth birthday with a traditional birthday party including games, ice cream and birthday cake. Her guests for the occasion were Candy Geder, Kaye Burkhardt, Kathy Porter and her house-guest, Barbara Cunningham of Ottawa, Ont., Sissy McDonald, Nancy Stoll and Dianna's cousins, Maxine Moore and Barbara Baup, of St. Catharines, Ont.

Mrs. W. R. Cunningham and her daughter, Barbara, have come from Ottawa to visit Mrs. Cunningham's sister and brother-in-law, the Thomas H. Porter of Aberdeyve Drive. They also plan to visit Mrs. Cunningham's mother, Mrs. A. Hunter, at her home in Windsor, Ont., where Mrs. Cunningham was formerly associated with the Red Cross. Later they will join Lieutenant Colonel Cunningham for the trip to Metz, France, where they will make their home during his period of duty there.
DAVID (DEADYEY) Youkin, his sister Nancy, and his parents, the Ernest Youkins have returned to their home on Robinson avenue after a trip to the National Marble Shooting tournament at Portland, Oregon, where David represented the state of Michigan. David was presented with a wrist watch at the tournament but met defeat in his third match. After leaving Portland the Youkins spent the remainder of their twenty-five day vacation and 7100 mile tour visiting Diamond Lake, Oregon, California, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico and Colorado. David particularly enjoyed several stops made at dude ranches.
The J. R. Birchards of Groveland avenue returned recently from a two week visit with his parents, the Dennis Birchards, at their home in St. Petersburg, Florida. While they were there, Pamela, their five year old daughter, was thrilled to be the flower girl at the wedding of Birchard's sister, Alvena, and Howard Pryor of St. Petersburg. Before turning north, the Birchards visited Miami.

LAST FRIDAY the Harry Whales also returned after spending three weeks in the west. They visited Whale's mother, Mrs. James Whales, at her home in Colorado Springs, Cripple Creek and Victor, Colorado, which have again become booming gold mining towns interested in the Whales. They also went to Denver and stopped on their way home to see the tremendous carvings at Mt. Rushmore.
Mrs. Charles Parrott, of Groveland, entertained a group of neighbors and their children last Tuesday with a picnic and beach party held at a cottage at Elk Lake near Arden. When her mother, Mrs. Ralph Barr spends the summer, on the beach with their children were Mrs. J. R. Birchard, Mrs. Harry Blair, Mrs. Gordon Messner, Mrs. William Allen, and Mrs. Richard Swart. With Mrs. Swart were her young house-guests Marilyn and Kathleen Swart, daughters of the Ernest Swarts of Rochester, New York.

MR. AND MRS. W. H. L. Eversard have as their house-guests at Baytown, Tex. After spending several days here the Hickersons plan to join another sister, Mrs. Harold Stevens of Hanover, place, Pleasant Ridge for a trip through the Muskoka Lake region in Ontario.
Dr. and Mrs. Edward Stoll, of Aberdeyve drive returned from the American Medical Association Meeting held in New York City in June and picked up their children before attending Phi Kappa Phi, Phi Sigma and Phi Beta Kappa sight-seeing in the east. The family toured Boston and visited Niagara Falls. The Stolls have been here recently from California.

Localite's Engagement Told At Cocktail Party in Pointe

At a cocktail party in their Grosse Pointe home Sunday, July 12, Mr. and Mrs. R. Garvey's Gylls announced the engagement of their daughter, Carroll Field, to Edward Snover Reid III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Reid, Jr., of Clifton road.

Carroll is a graduate of Grosse Pointe high school and graduated from Cranbrook. He received his degree from Yale University in 1951 and was affiliated with Zeta Psi and Phi Beta Kappa in that year. He was named in his junior year. He was released from the Marine Corps in February after a tour of duty in Korea as a first lieutenant.

AMONG THOSE on hand when the romantic tidings were revealed were the bride-elect's sister, Mrs. Donald R. Hoover who came from Fort Knox, Ky., where Lt. Hoover is stationed; and two Vassar classmates, Mildred H. Coe of Chevy Chase, Md., and Susan Story of Kentworth, Ill.

Have You Met . . .

Charles L. O'Neil and his two daughters, Corinne, 21, and Eleanor, 17, year-old. They moved from Pittsburgh, Pa., to 628 Puritan road in June. O'Neil is assistant sales director for S. S. Kresge Company.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

THE Wabeek Shoppers Credit Plan
... LETS ME SHOP ON CREDIT WHEREVER THIS SIGN IS DISPLAYED AND PAY THE BILLS WITH JUST ONE CHECK!
"Wabeek State Bank brings you a new kind of credit plan at no extra cost. You don't even have to be a Wabeek Bank depositor!"
"Now that I have my Wabeek Shoppers Credit Plan, I do all my shopping at stores that display the Wabeek Shoppers Credit Plan emblem. It's so easy and so convenient! The bank bills me once each month for all my purchases, and I pay with just one check instead of many. It saves me time and work. It's accurate, because I get copies of all the sales slips. And another thing is that I've established my credit at the bank, for any future financial needs. "Look at all the stores where my credit is good" . . . and the list is growing every day! With my credit plan, I don't have to carry a lot of money when I go shopping, and I can buy whatever I need at exactly the right time.
"It's easy to get one of these credit plans and enjoy all the ease and convenience of the plan. Just get an application blank from any Wabeek banking office, or from one of the member merchant stores. Fill out this application, turn it in, and in no time at all you'll be able to shop at any of the places listed below, and pay for all your purchases with one check, the way I do. If your favorite merchant is not listed, ask him about joining the plan."
