

Jeanne Brown Is June Bride At Christ Church Cranbrook

Sea Island, Ga., was the destination of Mrs. and Mrs. Robert P. Gygill, Sr., after their marriage at Christ Church Cranbrook Saturday evening.

Mrs. Gygill is the former Jeanne Carolyn Brown, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Kingsley M. Brown of Chasing Cross road. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Gygill of Shaker Heights, O.

The bridegroom was high-necked with a bouffant skirt over hoops just sweeping the floor. The bride wore a tiara with her fingertip veil, and carried white orchids.

Mrs. Kingsley M. Brown, Jr., was matron of honor, and Harriet Fell Bothwell of Wilmington, Del., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Marcia Gygill, sister of the groom; Elizabeth Ward of Pontiac; Elizabeth Bracker of Philadelphia and Mary Ann Milbrand.

They wore ice blue organdy in a waist-length and carried bunches of yellow daisies.

A reception at the Christ Church Cranbrook club followed the nuptials. Mr. and Mrs. Gygill will reside in Shaker Heights.

If June is indeed the traditional month for graduations and weddings, it might truly be said that this year the Charles Clark family spent the month in the traditional manner. On June 18, their daughter, Charlotte Ann Backus received her degree in speech therapy from Ohio State University. Miss Backus and Richard Benton Swearingen, of Columbus, Ohio, were married June 20 at Christ Church Cranbrook. A reception followed at the Clark's Birchwood road home. After a honeymoon in northern Michigan, the newlyweds will return to Columbus, where Swearingen will complete his course in architectural engineering.
John Edward Conroy of Bedford road, a recent graduate of Duke University, has entered law school at the University of Michigan.
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Souder, and son Jack, of Devonshire road, spent a recent weekend in Richmond, Ohio, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Harrison.
A miscellaneous shower for bride-to-be Dr. Juliette Seelye was given by Gertrude Hasse of Devonshire road, on June 18. Miss Hasse was a bridesmaid at the June 30 wedding at Christ Church Cranbrook.
Upon his recent return from Western Military academy for the summer, Bill Zebedeo was considerably impressed to find his father, Arthur Zebedeo, driving around in a sporty blue convertible, one of several provided for visiting golfers and officials at the National AFA tournament being held at Birmingham Country club. Zebedeo is general chairman for the event. Bill in turn, impressed his parents by appearing on the top honor roll at school.
Patrick Charles Varley is a new resident on Devonshire road. Weighing in at exactly eight pounds ten ounces, Patrick was born on June 9. His parents, Dr. and Mrs. John Varley, have two other sons, Jim and Joey.
At the recent Outlands riding club horse show, Wendy Paddison, of Mayfair lane, received a first prize cup and blue ribbon in one of the morning events. She has enrolled for the summer in the Cranbrook Little School of the Theatre. Her brother, Robert, is attending Camp Davaja, near Brighton, for a month.
Martha Brown, daughter of the T. T. Browns of Bedford road, has returned home from her freshman year at Duke university. An affiliate of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, Martha "mama" of the class list, was a member of the social student committee and was elected secretary of her class.
The West Beverly garden club met on June 25 at the home of Mrs. J. S. Curley of Bedford road. Members brought their own flowers and containers. Leola E. Hays, where Mrs. C. D. Hartsuff and Mrs. James S. Allen, of Devonshire road, members of the Birmingham Garden club, instructed them in the art of flower arrangement. Following the meeting, tea was served.
New neighbors from Paoli, Penn., are Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Vogelzy, of 5283 Belmont road, and children, Karen, 5, Anita, 3, and Emil III, 2. Vogelzy is with the Cincinnati Milling Machine Co., B. Pleasant Ridge.
The D. F. McCarthy family moved from Cleveland to their new address at 18432 Riverside drive, about four months ago. They are previous residents of this area, having spent a few years in Beverly Hills before moving to Cleveland. They have three children, Deirdre, 5; Jim, 3, and Maeve, 11 months. McCarthy is a copy writer for D. P. Brother Co.
Business will be a pleasure this summer for Barbara Wesley, daughter of Mrs. David A. Wesley of Devonshire road, Barbara, an art teacher at Southfield high school, and Jane Carpenter, of Royal Oak, are attending the University of Hawaii, where Barbara is particularly interested in a course in ceramics.
A potluck luncheon and handkerchief shower honoring Mrs. Richard Lake, of Baltimore road, was recently held at the home of Mrs. Harry Hyvonen, of Mayfair lane. The Lakes will move to California in the near future. Gathered to say farewell were Mrs. Jack Harting, Mrs. W. O. Gunning, Mrs. J. J. Dugan, Mrs. Alan Brundage, Mrs. Jack Quaffan, Mrs. Janet Borough, Martha W. O. Ginning, Mrs. Ormond Whipple, Mrs. R. B. McMillan, Mrs. Hugh Henshull and Mrs. L. Emde.

News in juvenile furniture is the fact that one manufacturer has completely revamped the hardware in his line of play pens and cribs so that frames can be kick-operated. That is, a mere kick will collapse play pens and cribs instead of tedious pulling and pushing.

Satin and Lace Were Chosen By Tuesday's Bride
A gown of ivory satin and lace was worn by Dr. Juliette Louise Seelye as she became the bride of Stanley Eugene Karow before the Rev. William Norvell at Christ Church Cranbrook Tuesday evening, June 30.
A reception at the church followed the vows.
THE BRIDE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard P. Seelye of Westwood drive, asked her sister, Mrs. Gordon Newton of Lansing to be her matron of honor. She wore a blue shaded gown with a lace bodice and net skirt, and carried yellow carnations.
Similar gowns in a yellow shade were worn by bridesmaids Dr. Blanche Thomas, Madeline McMath and Gertrude Hasse. They carried delphinium and cornflowers.
For her daughter's vows, Mrs. Seelye chose a gown of mauve tulle and lace.
THE BEST MAN'S duties were performed by Dr. Glenn Hiller, with Ben Stanczyk, Gordon Newton, Joseph Karowski and Ferdinand Kotz of Flint stating the guests.
Mr. and Mrs. Karow are honeymooning in the south with a stop at Niagara Falls. They will reside in Royal Oak on their return.
