

Nassau Honeymoon Follows Greenfield Village Nuptials

Honeymooning in Nassau after their June 27 marriage are Lt. and Mrs. Peter Forsyth Grylls. Mrs. Grylls is the former Janet Sue Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur James Mason of West Frank street.

The pair exchanged double vows before the Rev. Archie H. Crowley at the Martha-Mary Chapel, Greenfield Village. The bride wore French silk organza fashioned with a fitted bodice, off-shoulder neckline, and accented with appliques of imported Swiss organza.

Her full skirt and sweeping train were touched with similar appliques over tiers of organza petticoats. Appliques of organza blossoms formed a small fitted headpiece and held a tiered veil of silk illusion. White orchids, stephanotis and ivy formed her bouquet.

IN BALLERINA length strapless gowns of embroidered white organza over lime green tulle were Robin Henry, maid of honor, and the Misses Barbara Stauffer, Raymond Fracassi, Lahser road, was voted last week to the vice presidency of the Alumni Board at Cranbrook for the coming year.

Last Thursday's storm caused a considerable loss of trees in the Franklin area and took down the high voltage lines on Franklin road in the Village, leaving a good many residents without lights, water and cooking facilities. The Clyde Worley's loss of 20 trees was the greatest in number, while at the Joseph Brazier, Crestwood drive, a large tree damaged the roof. Lesser arboreal losses were the lot of the Rudolph Andreassons, the John Runseys, the Tom Daddons, the Ivan Smiths and others.

The E. A. Starrs, Woodgile drive, also found their roof perforated. Deputy Chief Les Fraser and Lincoln Parker and others of the Franklin Volunteer fire department stood guard at fallen electric lines for several hours.

The Walter Billers, returned recently from a jaunt to Honolulu, find themselves in a merry whirl. Son George, who graduated from Cranbrook last month was host at

Brother Gives Bride's Hand In Marriage at Holy Name

Recently returned to their Colby lane home after a six week vacation tour through California and portions of Mexico are Mr. and Mrs. Mel Mitchell. Visiting the Mitchells the next two weeks is their nephew, Guyne Boetcher, here from Wilmette, Ill.

Mrs. George Huffman and children Don, Larry, George and Ruth Ann are vacationing at Beulah, Mich. Huffman is commuting to and from Beulah frequently.

Mrs. Grant Sivier, Garden Way, and her sister, Mrs. Leonard Ferris of Lincoln, Mich., will leave next Sunday on a 10-day vacation tour of the upper peninsula.

Cheryl Lawton celebrated her 10th birthday last week with an outdoor party of games, swimming and refreshments. Her guests were Doran Peslar, Sharon Woodburn, Stuart Elliott, Susan Smith, Elaine Nowland, Billy Mead and Billy Mitchell.

Franklin youngsters leaving for the Girl Scouts Camp Nardin next weekend are Blanche Albert, Bonnie Jean Baugh, Angela Ann Dadson, Janice Faulkner and Charlene Newhouse.

Everyone has experienced cold weather starting at one time or another. Hot weather starting, however it is not, is a problem with fire trucks, for the gasoline evaporates from the carburetors during periods of idleness. The Franklin department is correcting the situation with auxiliary electric fuel pumps on both trucks, to save a precious, perhaps critical minute on summer runs.

Mary Helen Janisse was given in marriage by her brother Robert Janisse when she became the bride of William Newell Moroney at ten o'clock Saturday morning. The Rev. Richard Parrish officiated at the rites in Holy Name Church.

The bride is the daughter of Catherine Janisse of West Franklin street, and Joseph Janisse of Florida. She wore a gown of white nylon tulle and lace, and carried a bouquet of red and white roses set in stephanotis.

THE BRIDES two sisters wore her only attendants. Maid of honor Barbara Ann Janisse wore pale blue velvet organza and carried yellow roses, while junior bridesmaid Jean Janisse wore in pale yellow organza and carried a nosegay of blue cornflowers.

James P. Moroney was his brother's best man. They are sons of Mrs. William Moroney of Detroit and the late Mrs. Moroney, Joseph Janisse and Clemons Masson sisters.

A gown of champagne organza and corsage of pink carnations was chosen by Mrs. Janisse for her daughter's vows. Mrs. Moroney's costume was in powder blue and she wore an oval corsage.

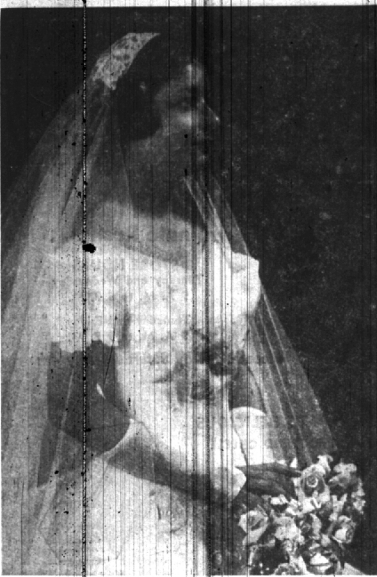

AFTER a reception at the Birmingham Community House, the couple left for a honeymoon in Northern Michigan. On her depart-

Local Man Named Head Of Physical Educators

The National Association of Physical Education Directors elected Lynn Russell, 1288 Edgewood Avenue, as its president for the coming year at its tri-annual conference last week at Estes Park, Colorado.

Russell is a recent recipient of the Roberts Gulick Memorial Award for outstanding work in the field of Physical Education. He is employed as Assistant General Secretary of the Detroit YMCA, and carries the portfolio of Physical Education and Adult Program. Married, he has two boys, Philip and Gregg.

BUY A HOME!

Not a Type of Architecture

Fads in home building are most unfortunate making the value of "type" homes sometimes unstable.

Here is an unusual opportunity to own one of the few authentic English Tudor homes in this area.

The attractiveness of its architectural design is as enduring as it is outstanding... a courtyard filled with flowers from February to November... hand-hewn beams combined with leaded glass windows... spacious, well-lighted hallways... set the background for gracious but modern living.

Give your family the privilege of living in this home in one of the finest locations in Bloomfield Village. Near Quarton School.
