

Suburban Seen

By KAY REED

WE DON'T KNOW how to grow it but we aim to find out. Stephanotis, that is. At the close of the largest drop of June brides to years, we have stumbled on the way to a fortune. Stephanotis seems to be to the bride as the moon is to June, and whoever has a corner on the market must be knee-deep in gold in his counting house. Second only to makers of Chantilly lace, that is.

A PRIZE for the ultimate in resourcefulness should go to a local country club whose pastry cook terminated his employment just before a large luncheon. After a slight delay four hundred parfaits were substituted, calling for some fancy ice-cream handling in the culinary department.

AMONG THE JUNE graduates from Principia College, Elmhurst, Ill., was Norma Jean Waterbury, daughter of Mrs. Rontae James Waterbury of Williamsburg road and the late Mr. Waterbury. With scarcely a month intervening, Norma Jean will become the bride of Christian F. Schneider, Jr., having set the date for July 25, at Kirk-in-the-Hills. Plans call for her to be given in marriage at 5:30 p.m. by her brother William C. Waterbury of Lansing. Also on the altar will be her sister-in-law Mrs. William C. Waterbury, the matron of honor; the prospective groom's sister, Elsa Lou Schneider of Essex Falls, N. J., the maid of honor; and bridesmaids Marion James of Larchmont, N. Y., Carol Donahue of Port Huron, and Barbara Watkins.

The groom-to-be, son of Mr. and Mrs. Christian F. Schneider, Sr., of Essex Falls, N. J., has asked his cousin, Alwin Stottmeyer to be best man. To seat the guests are David Clark, General Rubin of Toledo, O., Ensign Wilbur Maller of Rockland, N. J., and Pvt. Glenn Desmond of Big Pine, Calif., and now stationed at Fort Knox.

Parties for Norma Jean began during her spring vacation when Mrs. William McCallum entertained at a luncheon at Fox and Hounds Inn. Festivities shifted to the East Coast with Norma Jean flying to Roseland, N. J., for a party given by Mrs. Harold Kaiser. She was feted by her college friends at Principia May 27. Mrs. Samuel J. Duncan entertained at breakfast in her North Woodward avenue home on June 18, and Mrs. Ralph I. Corvell gave a luncheon at her home at Orchard Lake June 23. Mrs. Percy M. Nelson, Mrs. Herbert Fisher and Mrs. Mark Harris chose June 25 for luncheon at Pine Lake Country Club, with Orchard Lake Country Club the scene of a luncheon given by Mrs. Arthur J. Underwood, Sr., the next day.

Mrs. V. B. Watkins was assisted by her daughters Barbara and Betty at her June 27 tea for the bride-elect. Mrs. Robert P. Bissous was a June 30 breakfast hostess, along with Mrs. J. B. Billings and Mrs. W. E. Moody. Mrs. Clark C. Coulter has issued invitations to a July 8 luncheon at her Royal Oak home. The evening of July 14 Mrs. H. D. Harris and her daughter, Mrs. William Gilman, will join with Mrs. H. E. Tremper and her daughter, Mrs. Robert Harris in honoring the bride-to-be. Mrs. Albert J. Scribner will give a July 17 potluck. The senior Christian F. Schneiders will give the rehearsal dinner at Devon Gables the evening of July 24.

BACK FROM 'NASSAU HALLS' are Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Plexico of Arlington drive. With son Phil they have returned from New York and Princeton where Phil was an honor graduate in politics at June commencement exercises. He also received his second lieutenant's bars and will report for active duty in the field artillery at Fort Sheridan, Ill., on September 25.

MORE RETURNEES are Mr. and Mrs. John L. McQuigg who were on hand for the June commencement exercises at Denison University where son Jack was awarded his bachelor of arts degree and the Pi Delta Epsilon gold medal for journalism. Jack came home for a short period before embarking for Louisville, Ky., to attend several weddings. Daughter Sarah Ann flew to California June 17 to visit friends in Santa Barbara and Los Angeles. On the west coast she joined the Howard Tour group at the Ambassador Hotel in L. A. The group, which left Willow Hill June 21, includes Patsy O. Madison of Hesterfield road, Bloomfield Hills. Next stop for the group was Honolulu (by plane) where the girls will attend summer school at the University of Hawaii, followed by visits to some of the other Pacific islands. The latter part of August they will fly to San Francisco and thence home. Jo Tait of Lathrop road feted the voyagers with a "send-off" party in her home. On hand to wish them Bon Voyage were members of the class of '51 of Kingswood. Sharing the honors were Sue Sauter of Riverside drive and Mary Barton of East Long Lake road, Bloomfield Hills, who are each touring Europe this summer.

TALES OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC and the entire world for that matter, were the hill of fare at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Goodwin of West Thirteen Mile road when they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jahn and Mrs. Patti Gibbon recently. The Jahns and Mrs. Gibbons, who maintain homes in Paris, France, and Hollywood, Calif., have just completed a five year tour of the world. Recollections included hunting by camera in Africa and traveling by elephant in India.

COMINGS AND GOINGS on Bingham road are centering around the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Larson. Last weekend's guests were son Lt. Edward Larson, home from Fort Sheridan, Ill., and his fiancée, Joanne Kutten of Wilmette, Ill. They just missed another son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Larson who were married last January in Cleveland when they now make their home.

ADDITIONAL TRAVELERS are Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Davis of Mount Dora, Fla., who are spending a month with Mrs. Davis' sisters, Mrs. John Eager of Webster avenue.

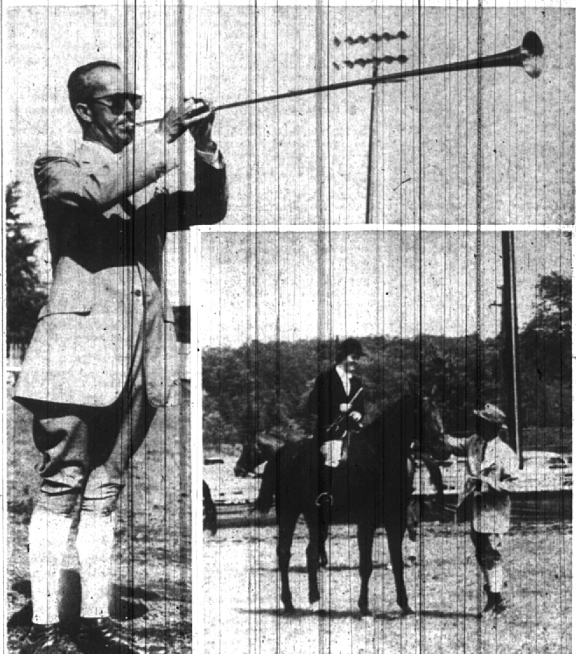

Barbara Webster of Portland, Me., was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Webster of Bates street, before returning to Algonquin, Me., where she will spend the summer at Hotel Lookout.

Martha Kraft, who recently finished her junior year at Bluffton College, Ohio, is spending the summer in California. Her sister Mary Ann who is teaching in the public schools of Concordia, Kansas, has landed in England. She will return September 2. The girls are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kraft of Oakland avenue.

Just stop and think of this eternal fact: babies come into this world entirely dependent for life, for instruction, for inspiration from their parents, and others. How wonderful are the opportunities of parenthood for guidance!

Entries Represent All Sections of Country

Riders and Fans Converge on Hunt Club Ring

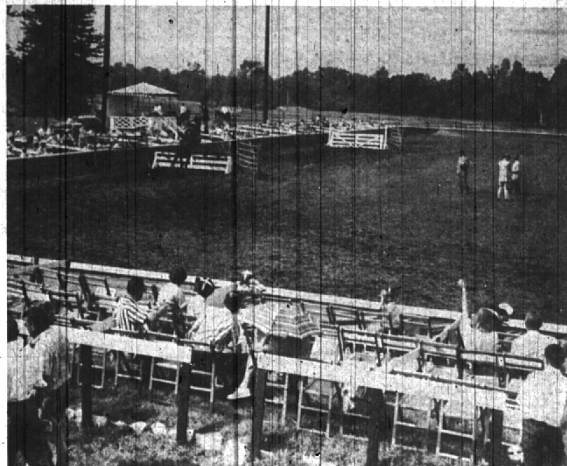

'TALLY-HO'
Ringmaster Clavén
(Eccentric Staff Photos)

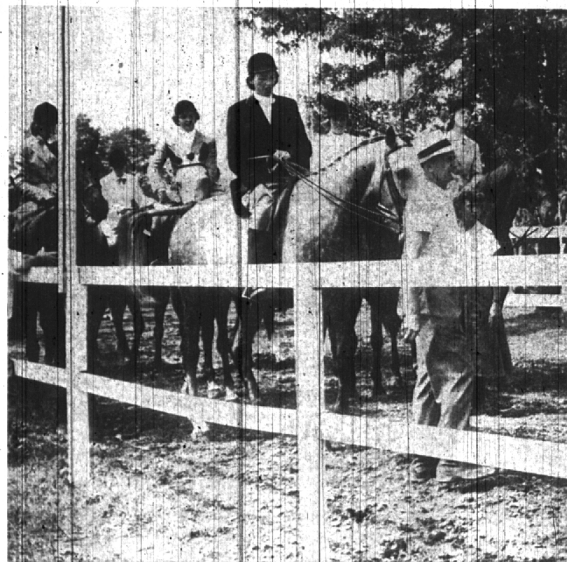

SALLY MOELING
Chicago Miss Takes Ribbon.

UP AND OVER
Junior rider takes hurdle.

SPECTATORS WATCH FROM BOXES
Just before rains came.

Activity in the paddock.
Waiting for ringmaster's horn.

MRS. JAMES GOUDIE MRS. WALTER WILLIAMS
Check program for entries.

MRS. J. V. BICE JACK BUGAS BARBARA O'CONNOR
KATIE BICE MRS. JOHN BUGAS PEGGY O'CONNOR
'Junior Day' fills stands.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY NEWS MAY BE FOUND ON Page 2 Section 2

Have You Met

Former Detroiters, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Brown? With their two children, Philip, 11, and John, 7, they moved to 1321 Yorkshire road in June. Brown is with Dearborn Motors.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.