

Home in Kalamazoo Awaits Pair Now on Eastern Wedding Trip

A bride and groom are on their way to Nova Scotia and New England where they are honeymooning.

The bride, a beauty and wife of a well-known Kalamazoo businessman, left for her honeymoon Saturday afternoon, June 27, at the Westland Chapel in Detroit, with the Rev. John Arthur Vesser reading the services.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mitchell Dolg of State Street, Kalamazoo. For her marriage she selected a ballerina-length gown of white satin, lace and nylon net, with a headband holding an illusion veil. She carried a white prayerbook with white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

MRS. DONALD B. DOIG, of North Okemos, Okla., was the bride's only attendant. Her ballerina-length gown of yellow-rose net fell over tall and she carried a colonial bouquet of Josanna Hill roses.

Donald B. Doig was the best man. Seating the guests were the groom's brother-in-law, Alonzo Rainier of Kalamazoo, and James Mandrell of Battle Creek. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Way Waber of Kalamazoo.

Mrs. Doig was attired in a powder-blue sheer crepe dress with a hitching hat. Mrs. Waber wore a navy sheer crepe with matching hat.

A RECEPTION followed at the home of the bride's parents. Out-of-town guests included the bride's grandfather, Charles M. Redden of Kansas City, Mo., and the Misses Ethel and Lorna Dolg of Walton, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd L. Waber and Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Rainier came from Kalamazoo, and Marsha Bennett and James Mandrell from Battle Creek.

Also on hand were Phyllis Buxton of Grand Rapids, Irene Shoemaker, Sturgis, and Mr. and Mrs. N. Gust, Joan Gust and Mrs. John R. Gust of Toledo, O.

BEFORE LEAVING on her honeymoon the new Mrs. Waber changed to a nutmeg brown suit and matching accessories.

Mrs. MARVIN WESLEY LOVETT

Ushers in Military Uniform For Lovett-Laning Ceremony

A military wedding with the groom, best man and ushers all in the uniform of officers of the United States Air Force, was said at two o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 27, at the First Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. W. Glen Harris was on the altar as Lt. Marvin Wesley Lovett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley D. Lovett of Portland, Ore., claimed Nancy Jane Laning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Laning of Chesterfield, as his bride.

The bride chose a gown of Chantilly lace over candlelight satin. Clusters of iridescent sequins centered with seed pearls were scattered on the bodice of her chapel-length dress and the portrait neckline was filled in with illusion.

A Juliet cap of matching Chantilly lace and satin was accented with sequins, and the bride carried stephanotis with an orchid corsage.

and an orchid corsage. Lt. and Mrs. Lovett are residing in Hampton, Va., where Lt. Lovett is stationed at Langley Air Force Base.

THE BRIDE'S sister, Shirley Laning was the maid of honor. Her waist-length gown was styled with a yellow satin top bodice and white net skirt banded in rows of yellow satin. Her matching Juliet cap was patterned after the bridal cap, and she carried a nosegay of blue delphinium blossoms.

In similar gowns of ice blue satin and carrying yellow carnations were bridesmaids Charlotte and Sally Smith and Marian Adams.

BEST MAN Lt. Richard South and ushers Lt. Howard Pitts, Lt. Harold Brooks and Lt. Robert Stephens are all stationed at Selfridge Air Force Base.

The Red Golf Club was the setting of a reception immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Laning greeted guests in a waist-length dress of navy appliqued net over dusty pink tulle. She wore matching accessories, and pale orchid corsage.

ON HER departure the bride donned a black and beige linen ensemble with black accessories.
