Area Marine Veterans Draft Plans Scheduling Bi-Monthly Meetings

At the last meeting of the Nichols-Conklin Detachment of the Marine Corps League, members voted to meet the second and fourth Tuesdays in each month. Next meeting is scheduled for eight o'clock Thursday evening, July 23. All ex-Marines are invited to attend any or all of the meetings which will be held at the new "Hutchinson Veterans Hall", 4703 Dixie Highway, Drayton Plains, just north of Pontiac.

The Nichols-Conklin Detachment of the Marine Corps League will attend the America's National Charter Dance at Walled Lake on July 24. All ex-Marines, as well as all other veterans, are invited to attend with their ladies.

MR. AND MRS. Walter A. Hannum of Beverly road announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Jean, to Lt. Eugene C. Hesse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Hesse, of Devonshire road. A September 5 wedding is planned.

Party for Past Matrons

The Past Matrons club of OES 220 will hold its next regular meeting at a potluck luncheon. The group will gather at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday, July 28, at the Oakland Avenue home of Mrs. Ira Brownell. Mrs. Brownell will provide rolls and beverages.

Wing Lake-Foxcroft News
 By JILL ROBERTS
 Mayfair 6-3022

There has been much concern in the Wing Lake home of Mrs. T. C. Carey since last Monday morning following the news of official fighting in Korea. Mrs. Carey's sons Sgt. Thomas C. Carey, serving with the First Division, USMC, presently in front line area where, according to latest reports, heavy fighting has been going on. As of this writing no word has been received from Tom or the War Department, but nevertheless, Mrs. Carey is not at all jittery on Carey Lane. Sgt. Carey, who has been in Korea for over a year, just recently rejoined his unit after a prolonged siege of spinal meningitis.

Something unique in boat christening was introduced last Thursday as the surprise birthday party honoring Rose Couits, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace M. Couits, resident of Wing Lake road. After the boat was christened, Mr. and Mrs. Couits and his guests promptly whipped it into the lake and officially launched it with a bottle of "pop". It was christened "Stella" for reasons believed only to the family. Assisting in the nautical proceedings were Steve Saunders, of Bloomfield Hills, Glen Stevens, Detroit and Ralph Garfield, Dave Ford, Douglas Whipple, Larry Seibert, all of Wing Lake.

The John W. Gillette household has been the scene of considerable activity the last few days. Gillette departed Thursday for two weeks of vacation in Wing Lake, on the boat of Harold DuCharme, accompanied by Frank Nicol, of Bloomfield Hills, and four guests. On Saturday a long awaited family reunion took place when Mrs. Gillette's two sisters, Mrs. C. Barker, of La Jolla, Calif. and Mrs. Richard Burroughs, of Richmond, Va., arrived for a week's visit.

Still somewhat shaken from their two-week experience at Houghton Lake on June 30, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Lehr of Gilbert Lake, former residents of Wing Lake, are understandably thankful for a lot of things. They arrived home last week from a two-week holiday at Houghton with hair-raising excitement accounts of the storming of the Red from their five-level cabin, took refuge in a warehouse, and emerged, fortunately, unscathed.

A substantial quota of Wing Lake and Foxcroft residents attended the annual meeting of the Bloomfield Hills board of education on Monday of last week at Vaughan school. The new superintendent, Eugene L. Johnson, formerly of Kankakee, Ill., was introduced and spoke briefly. In the social hour that followed, arranged and hosted by the board members, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson received informally.

Setting back into the normal routine after spending two weeks at their summer home at Bear Lake, are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Darling of Sunningdale road. They also motored to Chicago to visit Mrs. Darling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Luebke. The Darlings, formerly of Hoedale Park, have been residents of Wing Lake since February 1.

These last summer afternoons will no doubt find Mrs. Lawrence S. Martz, of Oak Grove, leisurely chatting with her mother, Mrs. T. T. Bailey, who arrived last Tuesday from Long Island, N. Y. for a ten-day visit.

New neighbor department: A warm welcome is extended to several new residents of Foxcroft among whom are Mr. and Mrs. John C. Finnegan, of Cabrius road, and 22 month-old daughter, Marie. Finnegan is Detroit district representative for International Metals company.

Other recent newcomers are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Berge, formerly
