MRS. LLOYD ALVIN DILL

Roxa Phelps Speaks Vows On Saturday
Roxa Ann Phelps became Mrs. Lloyd Alvin Dill in services performed at four o'clock Saturday, July 18, at Kirk-in-the-Hills by the Rev. Lennon.
Her sister, Arlene Phelps, was her only attendant. Both are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Claude A. Phelps of Fairfax road. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dill of Union, Iowa.
THE BRIDE wore Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over white slipper satin falling to a ballerina length. Her white tulle veil was held by a matching lace cap, and she carried a white prayer book with a spray of white gladiolus.
Miss Phelps was in a ballerina dress of pink silk, and carried a bouquet of carnations in a matching shade of pink.
Claude A. Phelps, Jr. was the best man. Donald C. Beard of Charlottesville, Va., seated the guests.
A RECEPTION at the Phelps' home followed the vows. Mrs. Phelps greeted guests in a ballerina gown of light blue silk.
The newlyweds will make their home at Kalona, Iowa.

Franklin Will Go Western
"Go West" said Horace Grovelly a hundred years ago. "Go West" on Saturday, August 15, says the Franklin Community Association in this year of 1955. The association is extending a cordial invitation to its second annual Bar-B-Q and Roundup on the Village Green.
Every detail of the colorful day will carry out the Western theme. On hand will be covered wagons, a sheriff's posse, riding cowboys, prime roasted beef cooked over hot coals in an open pit, prairie music by wandering minstrels, pony rides and square dancing.
