Wing Lake-Foxcroft News
By JILL ROBERTS
MAYfair 6-3022

Local entertaining, these leisurely summer evenings, has assumed a casual, relaxed mood... key to the season and outdoor living, with cool patios, terraces and gardens... lending informal settings for many of the social affairs.

Falling naturally into the picture was the garden party hosted by Mr. and Mrs. J. Aucherlione of Wing Lake road, last Sunday evening. Among the guests who enjoyed cocktails, appetizers and a superb board were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bergmeyer of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Nurne of Wing Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeBono, Malta; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Anderson, Grosse Pointe; Maj. Durwood Russell and Maj. Moss Fletcher, USAF, of Laredo, Texas and Mrs. John A. Roberts, of Wing Lake.

Mrs. Aucherlione, well known portrait and landscape artist and member of the Birmingham Society of Women Painters, has just returned with fresh canvases from Saugatuck, Mich., where she spent two weeks at the summer school of painting, Mrs. Ben Egan, friend and fellow painter of Birmingham also attended.

Last Thursday the Aucherliones hung out the welcome home sign for son George, presently on two week leave from Fort Sill, Okla. where he is stationed with the U. S. Army Field Artillery. The latchkey is out, too, for daughter, Mrs. S. R. Dunnuck and son Tripper, arriving today for a weekend family reunion.

Home from Dartmouth for the summer is Woody Proctor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Proctor of Wing Lake road. Last weekend Woody and a Dartmouth classmate, Bill Hovenstein, of Grosse Pointe, who has been houseguesting, motored up to Mackinac to attend the wedding of Susan Richardson and George Whitehead.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Fisher of Foxcroft, relate that letters from daughter Nancy, now living in Kaiserslautern, Germany with her husband Lt. William G. Plant, U. S. Army, are spiced with many interesting observations relative to their residence there. Quoting Nancy, it seems the German citizens are very "lockish" and in keeping with this characteristic the Plants were presented with seven keys to various house items, such as the refrigerator, gate, fence, cabinets and even closets. The "security" of so many keys is at the moment a confusing matter of debate.

The Fishers attended a first wedding anniversary dinner party recently at the Flint Golf Club, given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank De Bruyn of Flint in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Fisher, of Birmingham, son and daughter-in-law of the Fishers. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Fisher, Jr. The hosts are parents of the bride.

A farewell beach party and steak roast at the lake, honoring Mrs. Thomas C. Carey, who will make her home in Florida, was given last Saturday evening by friends and neighbors of Carey Lake and surrounding area. Among the well-wishing guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Hornrich, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Nall and Mr. and Mrs. John A. Roberts, all of Carey Lake. Still others were Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Cavan, Foxcroft; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Matley, Detroit; Jerry Hine, Buffalo, N. Y.; Fred Chubbett, Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. John Mustard, Detroit; Miss Angela Kubicki and Dag Packard, Pine Lake; Mrs. Carey and the late Mr. Thomas C. Carey were among the initial recipients of this great having lived at Wing Lake for 35 years.

The Sunningdale road home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Robinson of Wing Lake, has been overwhelmed with houseguests late. Early in the month Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hutton, of Seattle, Wash., brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Robinson, and an aunt, Mrs. Myrtle Cobleigh, Detroit, arrived for a week's visit. From Madison, N. Y., came Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Robinson, a sister and brother-in-law, for a three weeks stay. The household is returning to normal again, the only remaining guest being Mrs. Ella Hutton, mother of Mrs. Robinson, a mother who will make her home there for a year or so.
