

MRS. WILLIAM DAVID KRAMER

Cecile R. Woodhouse Bride of W. D. Kramer

Cecile Reburne Woodhouse, bride, came to the bride's home, 1400 W. Kramer, late Saturday afternoon, July 25, when the couple exchanged double ring vows before the Rev. Harold E. Towne at Christ Church in Cranbrook. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Urban Urdal Woodhouse of Lakeside drive, chose a gown of imported Chantilly lace over white satin. The fitted bodice was accented by long sleeves and a portrait neckline. Her billowing skirt of Chantilly lace melted into a chapel train.

A Juliet cap of matching lace with an open crown laced with satin bands and pearls secured her fingertip veil of French illusion, and the bride carried a crescent arrangement of lilies and ivy.

CAROLYN JANE Woodhouse was her sister's maid of honor. Another sister, Alison Burns Woodhouse, Jean Louise Clow of Denver, Colo., Patricia Ann Winkler of Oak Park, Ill., Ann Elizabeth Lundberg and Mrs. Theodore Lodigensky were the bridesmaids. Completing the bridal procession was flower girl Kay Kramer, niece of the groom.

The attendants and honor maid wore strapless ballerina gowns of champagne spun silk. Diagonal tucks at the midriff accented their billowing skirts and small, shrug jackets covered their shoulders.

Small wreaths of ivy formed their head pieces and they carried cascade bouquets of rubrum lilies and ivy, with the maid of honor's bouquet being distinguished by American Beauty roses.

For her flower girl duties tiny Miss Kramer wore a ballerina frock of pale pink dotted swiss, and garnet roses and ivy in her hair. She carried a cascade bouquet of the same flowers.

HENRY DRUMMOND KRAMER was his brother's best man. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Edward Kramer of Burns drive, Indian Village. Seating the guests were another brother, George Richard Kramer, William Frederick Brown of Atlanta, Ga., John Dennis O'Hair, John Edmund Bowen III, William Perrett and James Merritt Simons.

A GARDEN RECEPTION at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Mrs. Woodhouse greeted guests in a cocktail length dress of beige organza over taffeta embroidered in pearls. She wore matching accessories, a feathered hat, and a spray corsage of green cymbidium orchids.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Kramer wore a cocktail length gown of blue taffeta with satin cording on the full skirt. Her accessories included matching shoes, a rose-colored hat of braided velvet, and two pale orchids pinned to her purse.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bowen of Coronado Beach, Fla., Jr. and Mrs. S. Lawrence Woodhouse and daughter Betsy of Milroy, Pa., Mrs. S. Lawrence Woodhouse, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. W. Rowland Peters and daughter Edith of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weir of Langhorne, Pa.

THE NEWLYWEDS flew to Miami, Fla., and from there to Havana for a two week honeymoon. For travelling the bride chose a champagne shaded linen ensemble with accessories of matching shade and cocoa brown.

After August 8, Mr. and Mrs. Kramer will reside in the Concord Apartments, Detroit.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
