Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kelly were hosts at a buffet dinner party served outdoors at their home on Charles lane last Saturday night. Their guests were the Robert Hampsons, the Kenneth Waggers, the Stanley Bryers, the Donald Hackers, the Win Comnds, and the Preston Dogiers, all of Franklin. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sheppard of Pontiac, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Callaway of Royal Oak.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Adressson for the summer is their 13-year old nephew from Washington, D. C., Jerry Erickson. The Adresssons, Jerry, a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Rudolph Adressson, Jr. and children Linda and Larry, of Birmingham, and Mrs. Maud MacDonald of Redford, have just returned from a week at the family summer home at Alpena. The Adresssons will take off early in August to spend a week at their hunting lodge near Covington in the Upper Peninsula.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cauley and sons Michael and Jan have had a busy summer. They have visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Johnson, in Des Moines, Iowa, and have been on a camping trip in the Whitefish Bay area in the Upper Peninsula. They will camp at Glen Lake in August.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roseberry and daughters Sally and Sue, of Wellington road, and Mrs. Roseberry's mother, Mrs. Joyce Neal of Toledo, will leave next week to vacation at Big Win Inn on the Lake of Bays in Ontario.

Six-year old John "J-D" Bartleson, son of the David Bartlesons of 14 Mile road, left yesterday with his grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. P. L. Brockman, to vacation with them at their summer home in the Les Cheneaux Islands near Cedarville in the Upper Peninsula. His parents will spend a few days on the island sometime in August.

Mr. and Mrs. John Whiting, Wing Lake road, and Mrs. and Mrs. William Reilly of Birmingham spent last weekend at Rohl's beach on Lake Huron.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Love, who have lived on Woodside drive for 13 years, have sold their home and will build a new place on 14 Mile road at Franklin court. They will be renting a place on 13 Mile road in the interim, and will spend three weeks in August at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. visiting cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hubbert.

The Willard Harts, Inkster road, have a "for sale" sign on their home. They plan to move to Cedar Island.

Work on the addition to Walnut Lake school is expected to begin soon. New plans have been drawn, complying with township requirements that the building be set farther back from the road than the original plans allowed. The new plans also provide for a slightly larger addition. For a playground the board of education has purchased property west of the garage. Although this property includes the house at 2151 Walnut Lake road, a fence will be erected just east of the house as the boundary of the playground. The board of education garage is being torn down to make room for the school addition, which will extend as far as the middle of the building.

Garden club members met July 23 at the home of Mrs. E. S. Maund, when Mrs. L. E. Carter of Wing Lake presented slides showing the garden of her Cherokee Lane home from spring until fall. Among those present were Mrs. R. G. Banker, Mrs. Lester Johns, Mrs. Edward Griggs, Mrs. John Walters, Mrs. James R. Sanborn, Mrs. Parker Rockwell, Mrs. Henry Jokela, Mrs. Arthur Kane, Mrs. Julian Offenstern, Mrs. John Parkins, Mrs. Perry Graber and Mrs. Neil Lund.

Jan Miron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morton of Middlebelt road, celebrated her seventh birthday July 21 with a luncheon for a few friends. Her guests were Diana Naidirov, Vesdy Nahabedian, Marilyn Shanks, Janis Hampton, Barbara Kipp and Christy Gould.
Spending a week with the Weber Youngs of Lakeshire drive were Mrs. Young's niece and nephews Cynthia and Bonnie Rockney of Dearborn, and her brother Doug Maclean of Ferndale. At the same time the Young's son Jimmy went to Ferndale to visit his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Maclean.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Graber, Kay and Lorene, went to Ohio last weekend for a reunion of Mrs. Graber's family, held Sunday at the Hoover Co. camp at N. Canton. Guests at the home of the Edward Nightingales on Comfort drive last week were Mrs. Nightingale's niece and nephew Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miller and their son Timmy of Cincinnati, Ohio. Previously the Nightingales had entertained Mr. and Mrs. Al Alexander, also of Cincinnati.

A few Girl Scouts and Brownies gathered at the home of Mrs. Harold Jones July 22 to model skirts and blouses which have been made by members of the finance committee of the Birmingham district of Southern Oakland Girl Scouts. The clothing will be sent to a mission school in India. The young models were Carol LaMotte, Karen Harper, Lorenz Graber, Sharon Gibson, Margaret Roberts, Judy Eymon, Susan Smith, Nan Jones and Bette Jones. Mrs. Edson Stevens, chairman of the finance committee, brought the garments from Birmingham.

Visiting the Emmet Deaneys recently at their Putnam drive home were their daughter and granddaughters, Mrs. Claude Stratton, Judy and Pat, of Plymouth, Mich.

The Gayle Chesterfields, with their daughter Suzanne and Lynn Ellen, of Sunnycrest drive, have returned from Mayfield, Ky. where they visited Mrs. Chesterfield's grandmother, Mrs. E. M. Sider.

Following their visit at the Frank Sweet home on Euclid drive, Mrs. Sweet's sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Loewen, Mickey and Bobby were accompanied to their home in Evansville, Ind. by Sandra Sweet, who spent three weeks with them. Last week Sandra and Mickey returned from Evansville by plane, and Mickey is again a visitor at the Sweet home. Marlene and Billy Travella were guests at the Maynard Mott home on Sunnycrest drive last week. On Sunday they returned to Dearborn with their parents, who spent the day with the Motts.

Mrs. Anna Nahabedian is spending several months with her son and his family, the John Nahabedians of Walnut Lake road, while another son, Richard, is touring Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hanson and daughter Sally have returned from Delavan, Wis., where they visited Hanson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hanson, and Mrs. Hanson's mother, Mrs. H. C. Cannon. Before making the trip they spent a day in Lansing with their son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Lee C. Hanson. The younger Hanson is with radio station WILF in Lansing.

Karen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Smith, and Lynn Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eisen, have returned from two weeks at Camp Narin. On July 19 their families visited them at camp. Walnut Lake girls at Narin this week are Carmen Sutton, Judy Kappes and Mary Roberts.

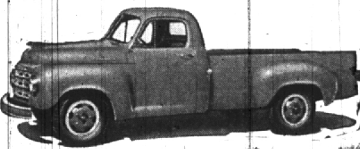

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hansen of Sunnycrest drive, announce the birth of a daughter, Denise Marie, on June 17 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac. The Hansens have two other daughters, Christine and Joan.
