Obituary Notices

CLEO J. HUGHES, 56, of 187 Crestwood, Pontiac, died suddenly at his residence July 7. He had been in ill health for about six months. He moved to Pontiac about eight years ago from Birmingham. A native of Harrisburg, Ill., he was born Jan. 16, 1897. He married Rose Ottoway in Detroit in 1945. An interior decorator by trade, he served with the Air Force for three years during World War II. He was a member of the Eagles lodge 1290 of Pontiac. Mr. Hughes is survived by his widow; a son Kenneth; a brother Clifford of Royal Oak and three sisters, Mrs. C. A. Adams, Detroit, Mrs. William Douine of Stockbridge and Mrs. Charles G. Rigdon of Birmingham. Services will be at 2 p. m., Friday, from the Manley Bailey funeral home.

MRS. KARL E. RHODES, 54, of 4805 Karel Road, Bloomfield township, died at her home on July 6. Born in Detroit on Sept. 6, 1898, she had been a resident of the township for 30 years. On Nov. 14, 1917, she was married to Karl E. Rhodes at Lake Orion. Besides her husband she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Wilson of Pontiac and Mrs. Shirley Voorhis of Bloomfield township and three sons, Karl E. of Birmingham and Elmer R. and John D., at home. Services will be Thursday at 2 p. m., from the Thurston funeral home in Pontiac, with burial in Square Lake cemetery, Lake Orion. The Rev. W. Glen Harris, of the First Presbyterian church, Birmingham, will officiate.

JOHN H. BROOKS, 68, of 22920 West 12 Mile, Southfield township, died July 2 at his home after a long illness. Born on Sept. 11, 1884, in the notes in which he died, he was the son of the late John C. and Martha Logan Brooks. He had been a farmer all his life and for the past several years had also owned a farm at Chelsea. Mr. Brooks attended Birmingham schools and on June 5, 1914, married Gladys Rule here. He was a member of the United Presbyterian church of Southfield. Besides his widow he is survived by two sons, John H., of Chelsea and Robert J., of Birmingham; a daughter, Mrs. Robert Mesagher of Birmingham; a brother, Dr. Clark D. Brooks of Detroit and four grandchildren. Services were Monday from the William R. Hamilton company's Bell Chapel with burial in Roseval Park cemetery. The Rev. Harvey Face of the Southfield church officiated.

ROBERT L. BREITENSTEIN, 50, of 1140 Westview, Bloomfield township, died suddenly at his residence on July 6. A native of Denver, Colo., he was born March 29, 1903. He attended Iowa State college and was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon and the Orchard Lake country club. A resident of this area for 20 years, he came here from Aurora, Ill., and was a manufacturer's representative dealing in office equipment. He is survived by his widow, Jean S., two daughters, Mrs. Edwin M. Peacock and Mrs. Stanley G. Borenstein of Detroit, Mrs. C. B. Kidd, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Breitenstein, and two grandchildren. Services were Thursday morning from Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton company, with burial in White Chapel cemetery.

ANNA LAUBNER RATHBURN, 84, died July 2 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. David L. VanDusen, 1015 Wadsworth. Born in Munich, Germany, on Sept. 30, 1868, she was married to Lemuel Rathburn in Lynn, Mass., on Jan. 1, 1895. She had been a resident of Birmingham for eight years, coming here from Detroit. Mrs. Rathburn was a member of the First Presbyterian church of Birmingham. Besides Mrs. VanDusen she is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Helen Wainwright of Columbia, S. C., a brother, Theodore Laubner and sister, Mrs. Franny Ireland, both of Newton Center, Mass. Five grandchildren and five great grandchildren also survive. Services were held Monday morning from the Manley Bailey funeral home with interment in Woodlawn cemetery. The Rev. W. Glen Harris, pastor, officiated.

FREDERICK BRADFORD SMITH, 69, a former resident of Birmingham, died July 4 at his residence in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. He was born in Detroit in 1883, and attended the public schools there, later the University of Michigan and Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He left to enter military service during World War I, and while stationed in Paris, married the former Elsie Baldwin. Mr. Smith had been active in the furniture business for many years, having first been associated with his father, who owned the Wolverine Mfg. Co. in Detroit. In 1924 Mr. Smith opened the Wolverine Warehouse Store, which he operated until 1951 when he retired due to ill health. Deeply interested in aviation he was often his own pilot on business trips. Besides his widow he is survived by a son, Frederick Bradford, Jr., of Detroit, and two grandchildren. A father, Robert W. Smith of Milwaukee also survives. Services were held in Ft. Lauderdale Monday morning.

EDWARD TRAUBE, 94, died at his Detroit residence on July 2 after an illness of one day. Born in Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 28, 1858, he moved to Detroit from Milford seven years ago. He is survived by two children, Jack Traube of Birmingham and Mrs. Merton O. Ball of Flushing; one grandson and two sisters, Mrs. Foster Hume of Atlanta, Ga., and
