JAMES C. ALLEN

Named to Serve State Commission

New head commissioner of the Michigan Corporation and Securities commission is James C. Allen of 1108 West Maple. His appointment to office was made July 6 by Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

A deputy commissioner since 1951, Allen succeeds John R. Dykema who resigned to reenter private law practice.

Allen, who was elected to the Birmingham city commission last April, is associated with the law firm of Allen, Haass and Selander, with offices in Detroit.

Birmingham Country Club Cited On PGA

Birmingham Country Club is to receive a citation of merit from the P. G. A. for putting on one of the best tournaments ever held. Never has a group of people been more deserving of the award.

Such men as John Calvert, president of the Birmingham Club, Arthur Zebedee, Drew C. Haneline, Aubrey Streadwick and Gale Stringer as well as countless others worked many long hours to make the tournament the success it was.

The women cannot be slighted either. They worked as hard as anyone on the scoring and many other details of the tourney.

Members acting as marshals did a fine job controlling the gallery and made sure everyone could see the players.

Parking problems were practically nil and there was not a traffic jam to be had.

The players themselves commented on how well the tournament was run. Many of them said they had never been treated as well before.

Congratulations Birmingham Country Club on a job well done.
