PLAY IT SAFE!

New Houses Dangerous Play Areas

During the past few years the Birmingham fire department has responded to many alarms of fire in partly constructed homes.

THEN TOO, many children have been injured recently when playing in these buildings and falling through holes in the floor or walking out on scaffolds which were not solid.

'Have Bins' and 'Never Haves' Settled Score with Ball Bats

By 1894, members of the old baseball team, The Hungry Nines, had grown staid and sober, fat and forty.

But baseball fever rankled in the blood of several of the "Has Bins" and some of those who "Never Have" played ball.

THERE WERE high hats, low front hood hats, straw hats and sun bonnets. There were boots and slippers. It was a great style of playing.

"THE LOBBING NINE to play front supper for two and all players will after the game have themselves to the National and gorge themselves, half being dead heads.
